Mark R. Walter

Owner & Chairman

Mark Walter is the chairman and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, and an investor, conservationist and social-justice advocate. He also leads the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation.

Walter and his wife, Kimbra, invest the vast majority of their wealth in philanthropic causes, primarily those focused on social justice; closing the "opportunity gap" for low-income youth; and saving endangered species and preserving wild places.

Their sponsored education programs include: Chicago Beyond, OneGoal, and the Academy Group.

The Walters also own White Oak Conservation, a 17,000-acre animal refuge in Florida, and wildlife preserves in Africa, where they are funding global efforts to protect endangered species from poachers and habitat loss.

Walter is a trustee of the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, Northwestern University, and the Field Museum of Natural History.

He leads businesses in areas that include sports, media and entertainment, financial services, insurance, franchises, energy, infrastructure, and real estate.

Earvin "Magic" Johnson

Owner

Earvin "Magic" Johnson is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Magic Johnson Enterprises, an investment conglomerate valued at an estimated $1 billion dollars. Since retiring from the NBA over 20 years ago, the legendary basketball star has morphed into a business powerhouse who has dedicated his life to leaving a positive impact in underserved urban communities. Having left the basketball court for the boardroom, Johnson parlayed the skills and tenacity he acquired on the court into a winning formula for his successful business ventures. With his continued love of basketball, Johnson is utilizing those same skills and winning spirit in his role as the President of Basketball Operations for the Los Angeles Lakers, working closely with ownership throughout all areas of the franchise.

For the last two decades Johnson has consistently turned heads with his unprecedented partnerships. In his early years as an entrepreneur, he forged an alliance with Sony Pictures to develop Magic Johnson Theatres. In 1998, he teamed with Starbucks to become the only franchisee in the history of the company, acquiring and eventually selling 125 stores in a lucrative move which further solidified his position in the business world. Both ventures served as catalysts for redevelopment in urban communities, and are widely recognized as the corporate blueprint for engagement and success with urban consumers across America.

Still a commanding presence in the sports world, he made history in 2012 when he became co-owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also co-owns the Los Angeles Sparks of the WNBA and Major League Soccer's Los Angeles Football Club.

Johnson continues to expand his influence through a number of other investments. He currently has controlling interests in EquiTrust, a $17 billion financial services company, ASPiRE, an African-American television network, and SodexoMAGIC, a food service and facilities management company.

The Lansing native is constantly evolving and remaining relevant in a dynamic digital age by broadening his scope into infrastructure and technology. Through a newly formed fund, Johnson is investing millions of dollars on infrastructure improvement in the United States. Operating under the philosophy that true success is making others successful, he is one of the leading investors in a number of minority-owned tech companies that include Uncharted Power, a company that uses their renewable kinetic energy solutions to generate clean, consistent, and cost-efficient power for communities, facilities, and the Internet of Things; ShotTracker, a company that makes wearable technology for basketball players that helps track player and ball movement; Jopwell, a diversity and hiring recruiting platform; Walker & Co Brands, a company that develops health and beauty products for people of color; and MiTú, the Latino-fueled media brand and digital network that connects thousands of Latin content creators with viewers around the world. He is deliberate in his investment strategy to bring positive impact to the community.

Johnson proudly serves as Chairman and Founder of the Magic Johnson Foundation, who has awarded over $21 million in grants – cash and technology hardware/software – and made a positive impact in the lives of over 500K individuals through various program and social efforts. The Taylor Michaels Scholarship Program has graduated over 435 students, the HIV/AIDS initiatives have tested over 40K individuals, and 15 Community Empowerment Centers have provided technology access to over 260K individuals. Stan Kasten

President & CEO

For four decades, Stan Kasten has been a highly respected sports figure and developed a reputation for creating winning franchises, relying on three pillars – scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach – to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field.

That track record has continued during his tenure with the Dodgers, where the club has reached back-to-back World Series and won six consecutive NL West titles, doing so for the first time in franchise history. Since Kasten became the Dodgers' President and CEO on April 30, 2012, the team has topped the Majors in attendance in each of his full seasons at the helm while continuously making improvements to Dodger Stadium to keep the league's third-oldest stadium among the best facilities in baseball. The franchise's unprecedented success under Kasten led Major League Baseball to award the Dodgers the 2020 All-Star Game, bringing the league's jewel event back to Los Angeles for the first time since 1980.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career and is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously, doing so with MLB's Atlanta Braves, the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and the NHL's Atlanta Thrashers.

In 1979, at age 27, Kasten became the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks, a position he held until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986. During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten built the Hawks into a perennial contender, including four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89 and a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances in the 1990's, and became the first - and only – NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB and won 14 consecutive division titles (1991-2005), five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series.

In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena. Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Kasten was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten, the Los Angeles Sports Council's 2013 Executive of the Year, is on the board of directors for the LA84 Foundation as well as LA2028, the group organizing 2028 Los Angeles Olympic and Paralympic Games.

A native of Lakewood, N.J., Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law School. Kasten and his wife, Helen, have four children: Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

Tommy Lasorda

Special Advisor to the Chairman

Regarded by many as baseball's most popular ambassador, Tommy Lasorda begins his 70th season in the Dodger organization, having served as a player, scout, manager and front office executive with the club and entering his 13th year in his current role as Special Advisor to the Chairman. At the age of 91, Lasorda continues to be an ambassador for not only the Dodgers, but the game of baseball, making countless appearances for charities, community groups and military personnel each year.

Lasorda compiled a 1,599-1,439 record and won two World Championships, four National League pennants and seven division titles in an extraordinary 20-year career as the Dodgers' manager from 1977-96, earning honors as the Associated Press Manager of the Year in 1977 and 1981 and taking home the MLB award in its first year of existence in 1983 and again in 1988. After retiring as manager, he immediately joined the team's front office, where he briefly served as the Dodgers' interim General Manager in 1998. In 1997, Lasorda was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and the Dodgers retired his uniform number (2) on Aug. 15 that year. Lasorda returned to the dugout to manage the 2000 Team USA Olympic baseball team and led the underdog team to the gold medal in Sydney, Australia.

Prior to his stint as Dodger manager, Lasorda spent four seasons in Los Angeles on Walter Alston's coaching staff from 1973-76. He also managed in the Dodgers' minor league system from 1965-72 and served four years as a Dodger scout after retiring as a player following the 1960 season. Lasorda compiled an 0-4 record and 6.52 ERA as a left-handed pitcher in parts of three Major League seasons with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1954-55) and Kansas City Athletics (1956). In all, he spent 14 seasons in the minor leagues from 1945-60 and he served two years in the military from 1946-47.

Even after his time in uniform, Lasorda has continued to make an impact in the Los Angeles and worldwide baseball community. His efforts to spread the gospel of baseball have been felt with the continued globalization of the game and recognized when then-Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig appointed him as the Official Ambassador of the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006, and again in 2009. Lasorda has been a spokesperson for the American Heart Association and regularly visits patients at the Tom Lasorda Heart Institute at Centinela Hospital Medical Center in Inglewood, CA (opened in 2000), and is also an official spokesperson for the Prostate Cancer Foundation.

Lasorda has co-authored two books, I Live For This (2009) and The Artful Dodger (1985).

Lasorda and his wife, Jo, reside in Fullerton, CA, and will celebrate their 69th wedding anniversary on April 14, 2019. They are also the proud grandparents of Emily, the child of their daughter, Laura Lasorda.

Andrew Friedman

President, Baseball Operations

Andrew Friedman enters his fifth season as the Dodgers' President of Baseball Operations after being named to the post on October 14, 2014.

Under Friedman's leadership, the Dodgers have won four straight divisional titles since 2015 (six in a row overall), while advancing to the National League Championship Series in 2016 and winning back-to-back NL pennants in 2017-18. The club's .584 winning percentage (379-270) under Friedman is the second-best in baseball since 2015, behind only the Cubs (.597).

During his time with the Dodgers, Friedman has overseen the development of one of baseball's top-ranked farm systems, positioning the organization for the long-term success, and also reorganized and built out the team's front office. Baseball America recognized these efforts by naming the Dodgers as its 2017 Organization of the Year, honoring the team for its success from top to bottom.

Friedman previously served as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations of the Tampa Bay Rays where, despite overseeing one of the league's lowest payrolls, he led the Rays to four postseason appearances, including two division titles (2008, 2010), in nine seasons from 2006-14. During Friedman's time in Tampa Bay, the Rays posted the franchise's first winning season and won the American League pennant in 2008, when he was named Sporting News' Executive of the Year. After finishing below .500 in each of their first 10 years of existence, the Rays finished above the .500 mark in six consecutive seasons under Friedman from 2008-13. Friedman joined the Rays in 2004 and spent two years serving as director of baseball development.

Prior to his career in baseball, Friedman was an analyst for two years with New York City-based investment firm Bear, Stearns & Co., Inc., and spent three years as an associate for the private equity firm MidMark Capital.

Friedman received a baseball scholarship to Tulane University, where he played outfield for the Green Wave and graduated with a bachelor of science in management with a concentration in finance.

Friedman and his wife, Robin, have two sons, Ethan and Zachary, and a daughter, Sadie.

Bob Wolfe

Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Long-time baseball executive Bob Wolfe enters his eighth year with the Dodgers and first season as the club's Chief Operating Officer after joining the club as executive vice president on June 7, 2012. In his new role, Wolfe will continue to be the team's liaison to MLB on a variety of matters, including scheduling and planning the 2020 All-Star Game, while also being responsible for carrying out the club's day-to-day business operations and creating organization-wide operating strategies. Wolfe's expertise in baseball and facility management includes stadium development and operations, finance and administration, sales and marketing, and food and retail services.

In Los Angeles, Wolfe rejoined Dodger President and CEO Stan Kasten with whom he teamed with at the Atlanta Braves and Washington Nationals, where he served as executive vice president from 2006-11. Prior to that, he worked in various capacities with the Braves and NBA's Atlanta Hawks for more than 20 years, including serving as Braves' senior vice president of administration from 1992-2003. After working in the Braves' accounting department from 1980-84, Wolfe accepted a position as Hawks business manager in 1985 and was promoted to the role of vice president in 1988.

Wolfe and his wife, Kelly Koelker, and their daughter, Ellery, live in Pasadena.

Lon Rosen

Executive Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer

One of the foremost executives in the sports and entertainment industry, Lon Rosen has directed the Dodger organization's marketing, sales and broadcasting initiatives as their executive vice president and chief marketing officer since 2012.

During his time with the Dodgers, Rosen has worked to enhance the Dodger brand and reenergize the fan experience at Dodger Stadium, which has topped the Majors in attendance each of the last six seasons. Beyond the ballpark, he's championed making the team and its players more accessible, forging connections with fans of all ages in the ever-evolving digital sports landscape.

With more than 25 years of experience in the field, Rosen was instrumental in assisting Magic Johnson and Guggenheim Partners in acquiring the Dodgers. Rosen previously served in the same role for the Dodgers for two years starting in 2004 before rejoining Magic Johnson Enterprises. Rosen focused his efforts for Magic Johnson on business development, television productions, sports consulting and new media ventures, in addition to his representations of broadcasters, coaches, hosts and other entertainment personalities.

Upon graduation from college, Rosen headed to the Forum, where he began his sports career with the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers and the NHL's Los Angeles Kings. He worked his way from an internship to the position of director of promotions for the Lakers, Kings and the Los Angeles Forum's Special Events, where he served seven years (1980-87). From there, he started his own sports marketing company, First Team Marketing, with Earvin "Magic" Johnson as his first client.

Rosen, a University of Southern California graduate, resides in Los Angeles with his wife, Laurie. They have two sons.

Sam Fernandez

Executive Vice President & General Counsel

As Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Sam Fernandez has been responsible for overseeing all of the Dodgers' legal affairs for over 36 years. His duties have included negotiating and drafting contracts with the team's broadcasting partners, concessionaires, sponsors, and players, licensing the team's marks and other intellectual property, leasing the stadium for concerts and films, and supervising all litigation. He has worked on matters ranging from the establishment of the Dodgers' training facility in the Dominican Republic in 1986 to serving on the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Properties, Inc.

In 2009, Fernandez was awarded the Sports Counsel of the Year Award by the Association of Media and Entertainment Counsel. In 2012, the Daily Journal included Fernandez in the publication's annual selection of the Top 20 General Counsel in California. In 2013, the Los Angeles County Bar Association's Corporate Law Departments Section named Fernandez Outstanding Corporate Counsel of the Year, and the National Law Journal recognized Fernandez as one of America's 50 Outstanding General Counsel in 2014.

Fernandez graduated magna cum laude from UCLA in 1976 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He received his Juris Doctor in 1980 from the University of California, Hastings College of Law and was inducted into the Order of the Coif.

Tucker Kain

President, Dodgers Business Enterprise

Managing Director, Guggenheim Baseball Management

Tucker Kain enters his eighth year with the Los Angeles Dodgers and was promoted to President of the Dodgers Business Enterprise in 2019. Kain originally joined the team in 2012 as Chief Financial Officer of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Managing Director of Guggenheim Baseball Management after leading the diligence effort to acquire the club. In his role, Kain is responsible for driving the growth of the Dodger organization's business enterprise, including strategic vision and planning, data-driven decision making, new business initiatives, and business extensions. Focusing on innovation, enhancing organizational fan engagement, and youth programs such as the Los Angeles Dodgers Training Academy launched in 2018, Kain continues to advance the development of the Dodger brand as a global entertainment property.

In addition, in 2014, Kain spearheaded the creation of Elysian Park Ventures, the investment vehicle of the Dodger ownership group, in an effort to leverage the Dodger brand in helping drive innovation. The flagship program of Elysian Park Ventures is the Global Sports Venture Studio, formerly the Dodger Accelerator, that brings together some of the world's biggest sports brands to collaborate around innovation in the sports and entertainment industry. This combination of brand partners and growth-stage start-ups lays the groundwork for continued innovation and business opportunity for the organization.

Previously, Kain was a Vice President at Guggenheim Partners in New York City, working in the corporate credit group overseeing an investment portfolio in excess of $2.0 billion. Kain, a two-time selection in 2014 and 2019 of the Sports Business Journal's "Forty Under 40 Award", grew up in Cleveland and received his B.A. degree in Economics from Williams College. He and his wife, Ali, reside in Los Angeles with their daughter Palmer.

Erik Braverman

Senior Vice President, Marketing, Communications & Broadcasting

Erik Braverman is entering his 11th year with the Dodgers and has had a major impact on the growth of the Dodger brand as it continues to expand beyond the world of baseball. In his role as Senior Vice President, Marketing, Communications and Broadcasting, Braverman manages the Dodgers' local and national broadcast relationships and directs the club's marketing and communications initiatives, helping drive ticket sales and place the club in a position to lead the Majors in attendance each of the last six years. He also oversees the club's internal productions, creative efforts and the Dodgers' social media, which has set the standard for fan engagement and grown to become one of the most followed teams in baseball across all platforms.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Braverman served as Vice President of Programming and Operations for ABC Radio stations, KABC, ESPN Radio and Radio Disney from 1996 – 2008. He was at the programming helm of the Disney-owned Los Angeles flagship when ESPN Radio was introduced to Los Angeles in 2000.

Braverman was the Director of Talk and Sports Programming at Westwood One Radio from 1994-1996 where he oversaw a number of nationally syndicated shows. He moved to Los Angeles in 1989 where he worked as Executive Producer at KFI & KOST Radio.

A native of Houston, Texas, Braverman now resides in West Hollywood.

Josh Byrnes

Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations

Josh Byrnes enters his fifth season as the Dodgers' Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations, where he's supervised the club's scouting and player development since being named to the position on Nov. 6, 2014.

He previously served as executive vice president/general manager for two of the Dodgers' NL West rivals, the Diamondbacks (Oct. 2005-July 2010) and Padres (Oct. 2011-June 2014). Byrnes began his baseball front office career in 1994 with the Indians, working as an advance scout in 1995 and 1996 before being promoted to director of scouting in June 1998. In fall 1999, Byrnes became assistant general manager of the Rockies and moved to the Red Sox in the same role for the 2003-05 seasons, helping Boston to the 2004 World Series title.

Originally from Washington, D.C., Byrnes attended Haverford (PA) College, where he established school career records in home runs and RBI. He has two daughters, Avery and Darby.

Joe Crowley

Senior Vice President, Stadium Operations

Joe Crowley enters his second season as the Dodgers' Senior Vice President of Stadium Operations after joining the club in 2018.

Previously, Crowley worked at the United States Tennis Association for 10 years as the organization's Senior Director of Stadium Operations, where he oversaw operations at the Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing, NY before helping with the planning, opening and operations at the USTA's National Campus in Orlando, FL.

Prior to his time at the USTA, Crowley served as Senior Director of Stadium Operations for 10 years at what is now Hard Rock Stadium in Miami, heading operations for the multi-sport facility which hosted the Marlins, Dolphins, University of Miami football and special events. He also worked for 10 years in operations for UPS in his native Massachusetts.

A University of Massachusetts graduate, Crowley and his wife Kelly reside in Los Angeles, and have a son, Anthony.

Antonio Morici

Senior Vice President, Ticket and Premium Sales & Service

Antonio Morici is in his second season as Senior Vice President, Ticket and Premium Sales and Service and his 18th season overall with the Dodgers. After overseeing the club's Premium Sales and Service Department for 10 years, Morici's role was expanded in 2018 to include all ticketing functions, including premium seating, ticket sales, service and distribution.

The California native first joined the Dodgers in 2002 as part of the ticket sales staff, but briefly left the organization from 2005-2006 to work for Staples Center/AEG. Morici returned to the Dodgers for the 2006 season and assumed a leadership role with the team's premium sales department. He was then elevated in 2009 to oversee all facets of the premium seating business. Under his leadership, the team adopted a tech savvy approach to sales, and helped establish many practices that are now considered industry standards.

Originally from the Bay Area, Antonio graduated from the University of Southern California and currently lives in Malibu, CA with his wife Caroline, son Charlie, and daughter Molly.

Janet Marie Smith

Senior Vice President, Planning and Development

Janet Marie Smith joined the Dodgers in 2012, and during her seven years in Los Angeles, she has overseen the large-scale improvement/expansion projects at Dodger Stadium and Campo Las Palmas (the club's home in the Dominican Republic) in her role as senior vice president of planning and development. From modernizing the stadium to incorporating the club's rich history into the ballpark experience, Smith's fan-friendly touches have helped keep Dodger Stadium - the third-oldest ballpark in baseball - as one of the premier venues in all of sports.

Smith is best known in baseball for her work on Oriole Park at Camden Yards, which set the standard for a new wave of ballparks after its opening in 1992. Smith worked for the Orioles from 1989-94 as vice president of planning and development during the design and construction of the park. She later re-joined the club from 2009-12 to direct renovations and expansion of the Orioles' spring training facility in Sarasota, FL., and upgrades to Camden Yards.

From 2002-2009, Smith served as senior vice president of planning and development for the Boston Red Sox, overseeing the preservation and expansion of Fenway Park. Smith was president of Turner Sports and Entertainment Development and vice president of planning and development for the Atlanta Braves from 1994-2000, when she helped transform the 1996 Olympic Stadium into Turner Field and she oversaw the development of the Philips Arena, then home to the NBA Hawks and NHL Thrashers.

Outside of baseball, Smith has worked on development projects including Battery Park City in New York, unfulfilled plans for Pershing Square in LA, redevelopment of former industrial buildings on Baltimore's waterfront as well as renovation plans for the Rose Bowl stadium in Pasadena, CA.

Smith holds a bachelor of architecture degree from Mississippi State University and a masters' in urban planning from City College of New York. A native of Jackson, Miss., Smith resides in Baltimore with her husband, Bart Harvey, and has three children.

Michael Wandell

Senior Vice President of Global Partnerships

Michael Wandell enters his third season with the Dodgers as the club's Senior Vice President of Global Partnerships. In this role he oversees all global partnership sales and service. He also is responsible for directing and developing joint sales strategies with the team's media partners.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Wandell oversaw all International Business Development for the National Basketball Association, where he was focused on large-scale global platforms across Asia, India, Africa, Europe, South America, Mexico and Canada. Serving as the League's Vice President of International Business Development he led negotiations on the groundbreaking global partnership that made Tissot the first official timekeeper of the NBA, WNBA, and NBA G-League.

Wandell spent the majority of his career in basketball at both the team and league level for the last 15 years. He worked for the Indiana Pacers, Phoenix Suns, and Charlotte Bobcats before spending time in Beijing and Shanghai overseeing all business development for NBA China. Over the course of his career, he has generated more than $1 billion in total sponsorship revenue.

A native of Champaign, IL, Wandell graduated from Northwestern University with a B.A. in History.

Brandon Gomes

Vice President & Assistant General Manager

Former right-handed pitcher Brandon Gomes enters his third season with the Dodger organization and first as Vice President & Assistant General Manager.

Gomes, 34, originally joined the Dodgers prior to the 2017 season as the organization's Pitching Performance Coordinator before serving as the club's Director of Player Development last year. In 2018 under Gomes' leadership, Dodgers minor league affiliates posted the best combined winning percentage of any MLB team, with the club's top six affiliates advancing to the postseason and three winning their league championships: Double-A Tulsa (Texas League), Single-A Rancho Cucamonga (California League) and the Arizona League Dodgers.

Gomes enjoyed a five-year Major League career, all spent with the Tampa Bay Rays (2011-15), going 11-12 while posting one save and a 4.20 ERA in 173 games, all out of the bullpen. He was originally selected by the Padres in the 17th round of the 2007 First-Year Player draft out of Tulane University, where he double majored in finance and legal studies. A native of Fall River, Massachusetts, Gomes was a two-time All-State selection, the 2002 Massachusetts Gatorade High School Player of the Year and a member of the National Honor Society at Durfee High School.

Jeff Kingston

Vice President & Assistant General Manager

Jeff Kingston is in his first season as the Dodgers' Assistant General Manager & Vice President of Baseball Operations following nine seasons with the Seattle Mariners. Kingston originally joined the Mariners in September of 2009 and was promoted to be the club's Assistant GM & Vice President of Baseball Operations after the 2015 season. During his time with Seattle, Kingston assisted with player acquisitions and contract negotiations for the Major League club, while overseeing the Player Development and Baseball Analytics departments.

Prior to his time in Seattle, Kingston spent nine seasons (2001-09) with the San Diego Padres. After interning with the club in the corporate development department in the summer of 1999, Kingston rejoined the Padres full-time in 2001 as an Assistant to the Director of Player Development. He was promoted to Director of Baseball Operations in Nov. 2002, a position he held until being hired by the Mariners.

Kingston is a 1999 graduate of Dickinson College in Carlisle, PA, where he earned a degree in economics. He is married and has three children.

Ismael Cruz

Vice President, International Scouting

Ismael Cruz enters his fourth season as the Dodgers' Vice President of International Scouting.

Prior to his time with Los Angeles, Cruz was the Blue Jays' special assistant of Latin American operations for four years following a successful stint as the Mets' International Scouting Director from 2006-11. During his time with the Mets and Blue Jays, Cruz was instrumental in helping to sign Vladimir Guerrero Jr., Franklin Barreto, Richard Ureña, Miguel Castro, Jose Fernández, Jeurys Familia, Wilmer Flores and Juan Lagares. He began his front office career in 2002 as the Expos' Director of International Scouting and Development, where he served until 2005.

Cruz, an infielder, was selected by the Phillies in the 20th round of the 1989 draft out of Eckerd College (FL) and played professionally for two seasons before returning to school to complete his Bachelor's degree in International Business. He then scouted in Colombia for the Pirates and Reds before becoming a sports agent in 1998. In 2001, he managed the Dominican Summer League Padres to a 39-29 record.

A native of Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, Cruz is married to his wife, Peggy, and have three sons, Brian, Jonathan and Anthony. His father, Pablo Cruz, was a longtime scout for the Pirates and continues to work in baseball for the Blue Jays in Dominican player development, while his sons Brian and Jonathan work as scouts for the Padres and Red Sox, respectively.

David Finley

Vice President, Amateur & International Scouting

David Finley is in his fifth season as the Dodgers' Vice President, Amateur & International Scouting. Prior to joining the Dodgers, he spent 13 seasons in the Red Sox organization and rose up the organizational ranks to become Boston's director, player personnel during his final three seasons with the club. Finley was also a special assistant to the general manager with Boston after joining the organization as its West Coast crosschecker prior to the 2002 season and then spending five years as the Red Sox's national crosschecker from 2005-09. He earned Red Sox Scout of the Year honors in 2007.

He previously worked as an area scout for the Padres (1991-94) and Marlins (1995-2001).

Finley played college baseball at UC Riverside, and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2018. Drafted by Oakland in 1987, he played two seasons as an infielder in the A's system.

Finley resides in San Diego with his wife, Tricia, and is a proud father to two daughters, Brooke and Brittany, a son-in-law Alex and a son, Drew, who is a pitcher in the Dodgers' organization.

Managing and Coaching Career

- The 2016 NL Manager of the Year enters his fourth season at the helm of the Dodgers, after leading Los Angeles to its six straight National League West title and second consecutive NL pennant in 2018
- Became the first manager in Los Angeles history to lead the Dodgers to the Postseason in his first three years with the club…among current managers his 23 Postseason victories ranks fourth, trailing just Bruce Bochy (44), Terry Francona (40) and Joe Maddon (32)…those 23 Postseason victories are the most by a big league manager in baseball history after his first three full seasons
- His 286 wins through his first three full seasons as a Major League manager rank sixth all-time – Source: Stats, LLC
- In 2017, led the club to the best record in the Majors for the first time since 1974 with a 104-58 mark and the National League's best record for the first time since 2009… was the runner-up in the 2017 NL Manager of the Year award, receiving five of 30 first place votes (55 total points)
- Managed his club to the best 50-game stretch in franchise history, as the Dodgers won 43 of 50 games from June 7, 2017 until August 5, 2017…it was the best stretch in the Majors since the 1912 New York Giants, who went 43-7 from May 6 until July 3 and according to Elias Sports Bureau, only four teams have put up a stretch of winning 43 of 50 games or better in baseball history: the 2017 Dodgers, the 1912 Giants, the 1906 Cubs and the 1884 St. Louis Maroons
- In his first season as Dodger manager in 2016, he was named NL Manager of the Year on Nov. 15, 2016, receiving 16 of 30 first-place votes, to join Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda (1983, '88) as the only managers in Dodger history to win the award since its inception in 1983…it was just the sixth time the award went to someone who was in his first full season as a manager…also became the first manager of Asian descent to win the award
- In his first season as the club's manager, he led the Dodgers to a NL West title, becoming just the second rookie manager ever to lead Los Angeles to a division title, joining Tommy Lasorda (1977)
- Honored as the Sporting News' 2016 NL Manager of the Year, becoming just the third Dodger manager to receive the award by the publication, joining Hall of Famers Leo Durocher (1939) and Walter Alston (1955, '59,'63)
- Made his Dodger managerial debut on April 4, 2016 in San Diego with a 15-0 victory over the Padres, the largest margin of victory in a shutout win on Opening Day in MLB history
- Named the 28th manager in Dodger franchise history on Nov. 23, 2015…is the 10th skipper in Los Angeles Dodger history and the fourth to both play and manage for the team (15th overall)
- Became the first minority manager in Dodger franchise history
- Following the conclusion of his playing career, spent the 2010 season in San Diego's front office, before becoming the Padres' first base coach from 2011-13 manager
- Served as San Diego's bench coach for the 2014 and 2015 campaigns…managed the Padres for one game on June 15, 2015, following the departure of Bud Black

Playing Career

- Played in the Majors for 10 seasons, debuting with the Cleveland Indians on Aug. 7, 1999…played for the Indians (1999-2001), Dodgers (2002-04), Red Sox (2004), Padres (2005-06) and Giants (2007-08)
- In 832 career games, batted .266 with 243 stolen bases, including a career high 49 in 2006…also hit a career-best .293 with San Diego in 2006
- Was the Dodgers' starting center fielder from 2002-04, hitting .262 in 302 games and stealing 118 bases in 143 attempts (82.5%)..is the fourth L.A. Dodger manager to also play for the franchise, joining Tommy Lasorda, Bill Russell and Glenn Hoffman
- Was traded by the Dodgers to the Red Sox at the 2004 trade deadline and then famously stole second base off the Yankees' Mariano Rivera in the ninth inning of Game 4 of the 2004 ALCS…the steal put him in position to score the tying run later in the frame as Boston became the first team in MLB history to rally from a 3-0 series deficit in the postseason

Personal

All-Star (2017)

Rookie of the Year (2017)

Career Summary

- The 2017 All-Star and unanimous National League Rookie of the Year enters his third Major League season after putting together a solid 2018 campaign, where he hit .260 with 28 doubles, 25 home runs and 76 RBI in a career-high 162 games
- Was named 2018 NLCS MVP after leading the Dodgers to victories with game-winning RBI in Game 4 (walk-off single in 13th) and Game 7 (two-run home run)
  - His 64 home runs in his first two big league seasons are the most ever for a Dodger and tie Mark Teixeira for the ninth most in MLB history…is one of 19 players to post 170+ RBI (173), 170+ R (171) and 125+ extra-base hits (129) through his first two MLB seasons (last: Kris Bryant, 2015-16)
- Honored with the 2017 Players Choice Award for Outstanding NL Rookie and recognized by the Sporting News as the publications' NL Rookie of the Year…finished ninth place in the NL MVP voting in 2017, when he completed the season ranked among the NL leaders in home runs (2nd), home runs per at-bat (12.31, 2nd), game-winning RBI (17, 4th), slugging percentage (5th), extra-base hits (69, 8th), OPS (10th) and RBI (T-13th)
- His 39 home runs in 2017 established a National League rookie home run record, surpassing previous record holders Wally Berger (1930) and Frank Robinson (1956), who each belted 38 homers…also recorded six multi-home run games, which according to Stats, LLC, were the most ever by a rookie in Dodger history and the third most all-time, trailing just Mark McGwire (1987) and AL Rookie of the Year winner Aaron Judge (2017), who each collected seven multi-homer contests
- Had his contract selected on April 25, 2017 and made his Major League debut that day as the starting left fielder at San Francisco…picked up his first career hit in his fourth plate appearance of that game with an infield single off of Neil Ramirez
- Belted his first two career home runs on April 29, 2017 against the Phillies, slugging a solo shot off of Zach Eflin in the seventh inning for his first big league homer…became the first Dodger since Yasiel Puig (2 HR, June 4, 2013 vs. SD) to hit multiple home runs in the first game in which he ever hit a homer
- Entered the 2017 season rated as the Dodgers' No. 1 prospect and 32nd best overall prospect by MLB.com, and rated by Baseball America as the seventh-best overall prospect in baseball…selected as 2016 Baseball America's Double-A All-Star and MiLB.com Organizational All-Star…selected as a 2015 mid- and post-season California League All-Star, and was also honored as the MVP of the league championship series for the title-winning Quakes…posted a .271/.352/.503 slashline with 66 homers and 257 RBI in 132 career minor league games from 2013-17
- Selected by the Dodgers in the fourth round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft out of Hamilton High School (AZ)

Year-By-Year

2018
- Appeared in 162 games, slashing .260/.343/.470 with 84 runs, 28 doubles, seven triples, 25 home runs, 76 RBI and 14 stolen bases
- Led the team in games played, hits (145) and multi-hit games (41) in 2018 and became the first Dodger since Matt Kemp in 2010 to play in 162 or more games in a season and is tied for the fourth most games played in a season in Dodger history
- Showed his defensive versatility, appearing at first base (110 games, 85 starts), center field (78 games, 50 starts), right field (five games) and left field (one game)

· Was one of 10 Major Leaguers with at least 25 homers and 14 stolen bases in 2018

· His seven triples ranked second on the team and ninth in the National League

· Hit home runs in four consecutive games from June 5-8 for the first time in his career

· Recorded his first longball of the season on April 1 vs. Giants, which was the 40th of his career, a milestone he reached in just 136 games. According to STATS, LLC., that is the third fewest number of contests needed to hit 40 all-time, trailing Rudy York (129) and Mark McGwire (110)

· Blasted two grand slams, June 22 at NYM off of Zack Wheeler and August 2 vs. MIL off of Jhoulys Chacin

· Appeared in all 12 of the Dodgers' Postseason games and was awarded the 2018 NLCS MVP after driving in the game-winning runs in Games 4 and 7…his 13th inning walk-off single in Game 4 was his first career walk-off hit…also blasted a go-ahead two-run home run in the second inning of Game 7

2017 · Named National League Rookie of the Year unanimously and selected as an All-Star in his first Major League season…became the Dodgers 18th Rookie of the Year and the 22nd player overall to win the award by unanimous vote

· Finished ninth in the NL MVP voting, was also honored with the 2017 Players Choice Award for Outstanding NL Rookie and recognized by the Sporting News as the publications' NL Rookie of the Year

· After having his contract selected from Triple-A OKC on April 25, he posted a .267/.352/.581 slashline with 87 runs, 26 doubles, four triples, 39 home runs, 97 RBI and 10 stolen bases in 132 games in his first big league season…ranked among the NL leaders in home runs (2nd), home runs per at-bat (12.31, 2nd), game-winning RBI (17, 4th), slugging percentage (5th), extra-base hits (69, 8th), OPS (10th) and RBI (T-13th)

· His 39 home runs in 2017 established a National League rookie home run record, surpassing previous record holders Wally Berger (1930) and Frank Robinson (1956), who each belted 38 homers…also recorded six multi-home run games, which according to Stats, LLC, were the most ever by a rookie in Dodger history and the third most all-time, trailing just Mark McGwire (1987) and AL Rookie of the Year winner Aaron Judge (2017), who each collected seven multi-homer contests

· Including his record breaking home run season, also set Los Angeles (since 1958) single-season rookie records in slugging percentage (.581) and OPS (.933), while ranking among the all-time club rookie leaders in runs (4th), doubles (T-4th), RBI (2nd), batting average (10th) and on-base percentage (4th)

· Ranked among Major League rookies in runs (2nd), home runs (2nd), RBI (2nd), extra-base hits (2nd), on-base percentage (2nd), slugging percentage (2nd), OPS (2nd), doubles (T-3rd), walks (64, 4th), triples (T-5th), stolen bases (T-5th) and hits (128, T-7th)

· Hit .297 (43-for-145) with 18 homers and 39 RBI from the seventh inning and later, while hitting .299 (20-for-67) with six homers and 15 RBI in close and late situations

· Selected to the National League All-Star team and became the first position player in Dodger history to make the team in his first season in the Majors…also became the youngest position player to be honored as an All-Star in franchise history at 21 years, 354 days old and the third-youngest Dodger All-Star overall (at the time of their selection), behind only Fernando Valenzuela (20 years, 281 days in 1981) and Ralph Branca (21 years, 183 days in 1947)…participated in the HR Derby, becoming the eighth Dodger and third LA rookie to partake in the event

· On July 15 at Miami, completed the third cycle in Los Angeles Dodger history (Wes Parker-1970, Orlando Hudson-2009) with a triple in the seventh inning…became just the ninth Dodger in franchise history to accomplish the feat and the first rookie to do so…according to Elias, became the first rookie to hit as many as 20 homers and also have a cycle in one season

· Homered on June 20, his 10th in 10 games, becoming just the second Dodger ever to accomplish that feat (Shawn Green, 2002)…became first MLB player to hit 10 in 10 games since Troy Tulowitzki in 2010…recorded the most homers as a Dodger in a season at 21 or younger, besting Adrián Beltré, who slugged 20 homers at 21 in 2000

· Named NL Rookie of the Month for May and June… established a new Dodgers rookie record for RBI in the month of May (27), and tied Dick Cox for the third-most RBI by a rookie in any calendar month, following James Loney (32, September 2007) and Del Bissonette (29, June 1928)…hit an MLB-best 13 homers in 28 June games, which tied for third most all-time by a rookie in a single month with Jimmie Hall, who hit 13 in Aug. 1963 with Minnesota…was also named NL Player of the Week for the week ending in May 7 and June 25

· According to Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player in Major League history with back-to-back multi-homer games at 21 years old or younger on June 11-13 and became the only player to have four multi-homer games in his first 45 career regular-season games in the big leagues

· Had his contract selected on April 25, 2017 and made his Major League debut that day as the starting left fielder at San Francisco…picked up his first career hit in his fourth plate appearance of that game with an infield single off of Neil Ramirez

· Belted his first two career home runs on April 29, 2017 against the Phillies, slugging a solo shot off of Zach Eflin in the seventh inning for his first big league homer…became the first Dodger since Yasiel Puig (2 HR, June 4, 2013 vs. SD) to hit multiple home runs in the first game in which he ever hit a homer

· Started all 15 Postseason games and hit .219 (14-for-64) with four doubles, one triple, three home runs and nine RBI… became the all-time Dodger rookie Postseason record holder in hits, extra-base hits (8), home runs, RBI, runs (10) and total bases (29)

· Posted a .343/.429/.627 slashline with four doubles, five homers and 15 RBI in 18 games with Triple-A Oklahoma City…prior to his promotion, he ranked among the PCL leaders in runs (15, T-4th), home runs (T-4th), RBI (T-8th), total bases (42, T-6th), stolen bases (7, T-2nd), on-base percentage (11th), slugging percentage (9th) and OPS (1.055, 7th)

2016 · Combined to post a .271/.365/.507 slashline with 17 doubles, 26 home runs and 71 RBI in 117 games with Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City

· Spent majority of the season with the Drillers, hitting .263 with 23 homers and 65 RBI in 114 games and was selected as Double-A All-Star by Baseball America after ranking among the Texas League leaders in home runs (T-3rd), walks (59, T-3rd) slugging percentage (.484, T-3rd), OPS (.843, 3rd), on-base percentage (.359, T-5th), RBI (T-9th), and extra-base hits (41, T-10th)

· Promoted to Oklahoma City on Sept. 3 and hit .545 (6-for-11) with three home runs and six RBI in three games and also appeared in nine postseason games for the OKC Dodgers, hitting .250 (9-for-36) with a homer and five RBI

· Following the season, played in the Arizona Fall League for the Glendale Desert Dogs, earning a selection to the league's All-Star Prospect Team and starting at first base in the league's Rising Stars Game

2015 · Spent the entire campaign with Single-A Rancho Cucamonga and led the Single-A California League with 103 RBI and 97 runs scored, while placing second with 30 homers and batting .264 in 128 games

· Selected as a mid- and post-season California League All-Star

· Also tied for seventh with 33 doubles and ranked third with 257 total bases

· Was honored as the MVP of the California League championship series, batting .324 with three homers and seven RBI in eight postseason games to lead the Quakes to a league title

2014 · Combined to hit .312 with 14 doubles, six triples, three home runs and 34 RBI along with a .352 on-base percentage and .474 slugging percentage with Rookie-level AZL Dodgers and Rookie-level Ogden

· His eight strikeouts in 7.0 innings of Game 3 of the NLCS against the Brewers were the second-most in an NLCS start by a rookie in Dodger history, trailing just Tim Belcher, who struck out 10 in Game 2 of the 1988 NLCS vs. the Mets…his 7.0 innings pitched tied Belcher (1988 Game 5) and teammate Hyun-Jin Ryu (2013 Game 3) for the third-longest LCS start by a Dodger rookie, behind Fernando Valenzuela (8.2 IP, 1981 Game 5) and Belcher (8.1 IP, 1988 Game 2)

· Became just the second rookie in MLB history to start Game 7 of an LCS (Oct. 20 at MIL), joining Boston's Daisuke Matsuzaka in 2007 ALCS against Cleveland

· Started Game 3 of the World Series for the Dodgers, logging 7.0 shutout innings while allowing two hits and striking out seven batters without issuing a walk in a no-decision…became the third pitcher in World Series history to log those numbers or better in a Fall Classic contest, joining Roger Clemens (2000) and Don Larsen (1956)…Buehler is the first pitcher younger than 25 years old to accomplish the feat in any Postseason game

· Was named to Baseball America's 2018 All-Rookie Team

2017 · Saw his first big league action in just his second professional season and made eight relief appearances going 1-0 with a 7.71 ERA (8 ER/9.1 IP)

· In the Majors, he struck out 12 against eight walks in 9.1 innings…held left-handed hitters to a .188 average and limited the opposition to a .182 mark with runners in scoring position

· Had his contract selected from Triple-A Oklahoma City on Sept. 6 and made his big league debut the next day (Sept. 7), tossing 2.0 scoreless innings of relief with two strikeouts against the Rockies

· Recorded his first Major League win on Sept. 21, 2017 at Philadelphia, tossing a scoreless inning of relief with two strikeouts in the Dodgers' 5-4 victory

· Selected as the Dodgers Branch Rickey Minor League Pitcher of the Year after going 3-3 with one save and posting a 3.35 ERA (33 ER/88.2 IP) in 28 combined games (19 starts) with Single-A Rancho Cucamonga, Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City…rated by MLB.com as the Dodgers' No. 1 prospect and was rated by Baseball America as the 17th best overall prospect in baseball

· In the minors, held hitters to a combined .208 average, while striking out 125 batters against just 31 walks in 88.2 innings

· Named Texas League Pitcher of the Week in the week ending July 2 and was selected as MiLB.com Organizational All-Star

2016 · In his first professional season, he went 1-0 and tossed a combined 5.0 scoreless innings in three games (one start) with Single-A Great Lakes and Rookie-level AZL Dodgers after recovering from elbow surgery

· Collected a combined six strikeouts against three walks and did not issue a hit in all three outings

2015 · Underwent UCL reconstruction (Tommy John) surgery performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache in Los Angeles on Aug. 5

· Hit .397 (25-for-63) with five home runs and 21 RBI in 18 postseason games during St. Louis' World Series run...became just the sixth player ever and the second Cardinal (also Darrell Porter in 1982) to be tabbed as both the N.L.C.S. and World Series MVP

· Became the ninth third baseman to be named the World Series MVP...His 21 RBI during the postseason are an all-time single-season high...Tied the postseason record with 25 hits, joining Marquis Grissom (1995 with Atlanta) and Darin Erstad (2002 with Anaheim) while his 50 total bases set a postseason record

· His .397 postseason average was the second highest mark in Cardinals history, trailing only Albert Pujols' .414 clip in 2004 and his eight doubles matched teammate Albert Pujols from 2011 for the single postseason mark...tied Game Six of the World Series with a two-out, two-RBI triple before connecting for a walkoff home run in the bottom of the 11th inning (was the 15th walkoff homer in World Series history)

2010 · Was St. Louis' starting third baseman on Opening Day...was limited to 70 games due to a right ankle injury... suffered the ankle injury on June 27 and missed remainder of the season

· Ranked sixth among National League rookies in batting average and third in on-base percentage

· Was named the National League Player of the Week for the week of 4/26-5/2 after batting .462 with three home runs

2009 · Was a member of St. Louis' Opening Day roster for the first time in his career...Made big league debut on 4/6 vs. Pittsburgh, entering the game in the seventh inning at third base; finished the 4/6 contest with an RBI and a sacrifice fly

· Recorded first big league hit (single) off Pittsburgh's Zach Duke on 4/8

· Hit his first career home run on 9/29 at Cincinnati off Ramon Ramirez

· Made first and only career appearance at catcher on 10/4 vs. Milwaukee; went behind the plate for the final inning

· Was ranked by Baseball America as St. Louis' fifth-best prospect..hit a combined .313 (71-for-227) in 64 games between Memphis (Cardinals' Triple-A), the GCL Cardinals and Springfield (Cardinals' Double-A)

2008 · Spent entire season with Memphis

· Played in the Venezuelan Winter League following the season

2007 · Spent entire season with Lake Elsinore (Padres' Single-A) while being named a California League mid- and post-season All-Star

· Ranked third in the California League in runs scored and walks

· Was acquired by St. Louis on Dec. 15 in exchange for outfielder Jim Edmonds

2006 · Began professional career with short-season Eugene (Padres' Single-A) after being selected by San Diego in the ninth round of the draft earlier in the summer

· Finished campaign with Single-A Fort Wayne of the Midwest League.

Year-By-Year

2018
- Went 11-5 with a 3.66 ERA (54 ER/132.2 IP) in 24 starts, holding batters to a .219 average and posting a 1.12 WHIP…led the team with 11 wins
- Among pitchers with 125.0 or more innings, ranked among the NL's best in opponents' batting average (10th), WHIP (1.12) and strikeouts per 9.0 innings (10.18, 9th)
- After returning from the DL on June 19, he went 10-3 with a 3.08 ERA (37 ER/108.0 IP) in his final 19 games (18 starts), while holding batters to a .198 average and posting a 0.98 WHIP… struck out 125 batters against 28 walks…won his final five starts of the season
- Appeared in four games (three starts) during the Dodgers' run to the World Series without factoring in a decision, allowing only four runs in 15.2 innings (2.16 ERA) while holding batters to a .148/.303/.167 slash line

2017
- In his first full season with the Dodgers, he posted a 12-8 record with a 3.32 ERA (50 ER/135.2 IP) and posted a 1.09 WHIP…struck out 166 batters against just 49 walks, posting a 11.01 strikeout per nine innings and a 3.39 strikeout-to-walk ratio
- Held opposing batters to a .203 average, including a .190 mark against right-handed hitters, which ranked sixth lowest in the Majors
- Limited batters to a .186 average with runners in scoring position, which ranked 11th in the big leagues (min. 100 BFP)… also his .114 opponents' batting average with runners in scoring position with two outs ranked sixth in the National League
- In 14 starts at home, went 7-5 with a 2.77 ERA (24 ER/78.0 IP) and limited the opposition to a .179 average…struck out 93 batters against 33 walks, while posting a 1.05 WHIP…his opponents' batting average at home ranked third in the Majors (min. 10 GS), while his .568 opponents' OPS ranked sixth and ERA ranked 14th

- Following the All-Star break, he went 7-4 with a 3.01 ERA (25 ER/74.2 IP) in 13 starts and limited the opposition to a .196 average, while striking out 96 batters against 20 walks…during that span he ranked among National League starters in wins (T-5th), ERA (10th), opponents' batting average (5th), WHIP (0.98, 4th), strikeout per nine (11.57, 4th), strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.80, 5th), strikeouts (96, 6th), opponents' on-base percentage (.259, 2nd) and opponents' OPS (.624, 7th)
- On Aug. 23 at Pittsburgh, he took a bid for a perfect game into the ninth inning, and after completing 9.0 hitless frames he surrendered a home run in the 10th…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, this marked the first time in Major League history that a walk-off home run broke up a no-hitter…Elias also notes that Hill became the first pitcher to lose a no-hit bid in the 10th inning or later since the Expos' Pedro Martinez took his bid for a perfect game into the 10th inning on June 3, 1995 vs. the Padres before being pulled after a leadoff double
- Named NL Pitcher of the Month for July, after going 4-0 with a 1.45 ERA (5 ER/31.0 IP) in five starts…struck out 40 against just five walks, while holding hitters to a .171 average and 0.77 WHIP

All-Star (3X: 2016, '17, '18)

Reliever of the Year (2X: 2016, '17)

Career Summary

- Two-time Trevor Hoffman NL Reliever of the Year (2016, '17) enters his 10th big league season after a third consecutive All-Star season in 2018…is the only pitcher to win the Reliever of the Year award consecutively
- In nine MLB seasons, has gone 25-18 with 268 saves and a 2.20 ERA in 543 games…has struck out 823 against just 143 walks in 548.2 innings
- Ranks 33rd on the all-time saves list (next: Rod Beck, 286) and is third among active relievers in saves, trailing only Craig Kimbrel (333) and Fernando Rodney (325)…is the only pitcher in baseball with 35+ saves in each of the last five seasons (2014-18), and the only Dodger in history to accomplish the feat
- During the course of his career, has limited opponents to a .175 batting average with a 0.89 WHIP
- Since his debut in 2010, ranks among big league relievers in saves (2nd), strikeouts (2nd), ERA (2nd, min. 400.0 IP), opponents' batting average (3rd, min. 400.0 IP), WHIP (2nd, min. 400.0 IP), save percentage (89.9, 5th), swing and miss rate (33.3, 5th, min. 400.0 IP), SO/BB (5.76, 2nd, min. 400. 0 IP) and SO/9 (13.50, 3rd, min. 400.0 IP)
- Joins Eric Gagné (2002-04) as the only pitchers in Dodger history with three seasons of 40 or more saves (2014, '16-17)…also has four 100+ strikeout seasons (2013-14, '16-17), which is also the most by a Dodger reliever…Jansen and Gagné are the only Dodger relievers to be selected for three consecutive All-Star Games
- Is the Dodgers' all-time leader in saves (268), strikeouts by a reliever (823) and relief appearances (543)…enters 2019 just seven games shy of Don Sutton (550) for the most all-time games pitched by a Dodger
- Has tossed scoreless relief in 31 of 39 career postseason appearances, posting a 2.08 ERA (11 ER/47.2 IP) and 16 saves, which is the most in Dodger franchise postseason history…since saves became an official stat in 1969, he sits third all-time in career postseason saves
- Had dominant seasons in 2016 and 2017 to capture the Trevor Hoffman NL Reliever of the Year awards…in 2016, led the Majors in WHIP (0.67) and opponents' batting average (.150), while ranking among the NL's best in saves (47, T-2nd), ERA (1.83, 2nd) and strikeouts (104, 3rd)…followed it up in 2017 by leading MLB relievers in ERA (1.32) and WHIP (0.75), and tying for the NL lead with 41 saves
- Made his Major League debut on July 24, 2010 and tossed a perfect inning…struck out the Mets' Angel Pagan and David Wright for the first two outs of his career…picked up his first career victory on Sept. 11, 2010 at Houston…recorded his first save on July 25, 2010 against the Mets at Dodger Stadium
- Converted from a catcher to a pitcher during the 2009 season after posting a .229 career batting average with 15 homers and 97 RBI in five minor league seasons
- Originally signed by the Dodgers as a non-drafted free agent on Nov. 17, 2004

Year-By-Year

2018
- Earned a third consecutive All-Star selection after going 1-5 with 38 saves and a 3.01 ERA (24 ER/71.2 IP) in 69 relief appearances
- Struck out 82 batters against just 17 walks in 71.2 innings…held opposing hitters to a .201 average, while posting a 0.99 WHIP
- Ranked second in the NL with 38 saves, behind only the Rockies' Wade Davis…collected five four-plus out saves…also ranked among NL relievers in strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.82, 8th), strikeouts (9th) and WHIP

(12th)

- Successfully converted 90.5 percent of his save opportunities, including a run of 21 consecutive save opportunities from April 22-July 4
- Picked up the 250th save of his career on June 25 vs. the Cubs, becoming the 36th pitcher in MLB history to reach the milestone
- Tossed scoreless relief in seven of nine Postseason appearances, allowing two runs in 10.2 innings (1.69 ERA)…limited opposing hitters to a .114 batting average (4-for-35) with a 0.66 WHIP, while striking out nine
- Missed 10 games due to an irregular heartbeat (August 10-20)…underwent a heart ablation procedure on Nov. 26, 2018, performed by Dr. Koonlawee Nademanee in Los Angeles

2017
- Honored as the Trevor Hoffman NL Reliever of the Year for the second consecutive season and selected to his second straight All-Star game after going 5-0 with a 1.32 ERA (10 ER/68.1 IP) and 41 saves…recorded his third-career 40-plus save season (also: 2014, '16), joining Eric Gagné (2002-04) as the only pitchers in Dodger history with three seasons of 40 or more saves
- Led Major League relievers in ERA (1.32), WHIP (0.75) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (15.57), while tied for the National League lead in saves (41, T-2nd ML)…also ranked among the NL relievers in strikeouts (109, 2nd), wins (5, T-10th) and strikeouts per nine innings (14.36, 2nd)
- Limited hitters to a .177 (5th, NL)/.206 (1st, NL)/.270 (4th, NL) slashline, including holding right-handers to a .120 average (15-for-125) and a .236 mark against lefties (29-for-123)…held batters to a .476 OPS, which was the third lowest in the National League
- Held batters with runners in scoring position to a .136 average (8-for-59) and a .161 mark with runners on base
- Named National League Reliever of the Month for the month of June…was perfect in save opportunities throughout the month, as he converted each of his 10 chances over 12 games in 14.0 innings, while striking out 18 against a lone walk…posted a scoreless innings streak of 17.0 innings (May 23-July 5)
- Recorded the 200th save of his career after tossing a perfect ninth inning with a strikeout against the Reds on June 11
- Began the season striking out 51 of 115 batters he faced without issuing a walk, which according to Elias Sports Bureau is the most strikeouts to open a season without a walk in big league history
- Struck out the side on only nine pitches in the ninth inning on May 18 against the Marlins at Dodger Stadium, which was the 79th time in Major League history that an immaculate inning was recorded… became the first Dodger pitcher to throw an immaculate inning since Todd Worrell on Aug. 13, 1995
- Recorded his first career extra-base hit and RBI on June 25 against the Rockies after stroking an RBI double in the eighth inning off of Greg Holland
- Tossed scoreless relief in 10 of 13 postseason appearances and converted five of six save opportunities… three of the five saves were four-plus out saves…went 1-1 with a 1.62 ERA (3 ER/16.2 IP) and struck out 20 batters against just three walks, while limiting batters to a .138 average…since saves became an official stat in 1969, he is tied for fourth all-time on the career postseason saves list

2016
- Named the Trevor Hoffman NL Reliever of the Year and selected to his first-career All-Star Game, going 3-2 with 47 saves and a 1.83 ERA in 71 games
- Tied with Zach Britton and Mark Melancon for second in the Majors with a career-high 47 saves, four behind Jeurys Familia…was 47 of 53 in save opportunities and was the only Dodger to record a save in 2016, marking the first time that's happened since the save became a statistic in 1969
- Led the Majors in WHIP (0.67) and opponents' batting average (.150), while ranking among the National League's best relievers in ERA (1.83, 2nd) and strikeouts (104, 3rd)…walked only 11 batters in 68.2 innings and owned the best strikeout-to-walk ratio in the National League (9.45)
- On June 21 vs. Washington, established new Dodger franchise marks in saves, finishing the year with 189 after surpassing Eric Gagné (161)…also set the franchise record for strikeouts as a reliever (632), eclipsing Jim Brewer's mark of 604
- Tossed scoreless relief in six of seven postseason appearances and successfully converted all three save opportunities in the NLDS and NLCS…five of seven outings were more than 1.0 inning, while his 3.0 innings in NLCS Game 6 at Chicago were a career high…also established a career high with 51 pitches thrown in 2.1 innings in NLDS Game 5 at Washington

2015
- Was successful on 36 of 38 save opportunities (94.7%), while going 2-1 with a 2.41 ERA in 54 games in his sixth MLB season
- In the postseason, picked up two saves in as many opportunities and struck out four in 3.1 scoreless innings in three NLDS games against the Mets
- Led MLB relievers with a 0.78 WHIP and ranked among the NL leaders in saves (7th), save percentage (3rd) and opponents' batting average (.176, 3rd)…struck out 80 against just eight walks, leading NL relievers with a 10.00 strikeout-to-walk ratio
- Made his 2015 debut on May 15 vs. Colorado and struck out four in a scoreless eighth inning (Carlos Gonzalez reached on a passed ball), as he recorded just the sixth four-strikeout inning by a pitcher in Dodger history

· Missed first 34 games of the season due to Feb. 17 surgery to remove a growth from a bone in his left fifth metatarsal

2014 · Posted a 2-3 record with a 2.76 ERA and tied for third in the NL with a career-high 44 saves in his fifth big league season

· Converted 16 consecutive save opportunities from April 17-June 17 and 44-of-49 save opportunities overall (89.8%)

· Ranked second among NL relievers with 101 strikeouts, as he posted his second consecutive 100-strikeout season

· Limited opponents to a .224 batting average, including a .169 mark against right-handed hitters (22-for-130)

· Picked up his 100th career save on Aug. 27 at Arizona, becoming the sixth Dodger reliever to reach the milestone

· Appeared in one postseason game in the Dodgers' NLDS loss to the Cardinals, striking out two in a scoreless inning to pick up the save in Game 2

2013 · Recorded 28 saves in 32 opportunities and ranked among the NL relief leaders in saves (T-11th), ERA (1.88, 6th), opponents' batting average (.177, 7th), WHIP (0.86, 2nd) and strikeouts (111, 2nd) in 75 games (T-4th)

· His 111 strikeouts ranked as the seventh-most all-time by a Los Angeles reliever

· Allowed just four hits all season with runners in scoring position, limiting opponents to a .068 average (4-for-59) with 23 strikeouts in those situations

· Retired 27 consecutive batters from July 23-Aug. 8, including 15 strikeouts

· Made six postseason appearances for the Dodgers, successfully converting both of his save opportunities and allowing two runs on six hits in 4.1 innings (4.15 ERA)

2012 · Ranked among the NL relief leaders in wins (5, T-10th), saves (25, T-10th), strikeouts (99, 3rd), ERA (2.35, 8th), opponents' batting average (.146, 3rd) and WHIP (0.85, 3rd)

· Successfully converted 25 of 32 save opportunities after taking over as the club's full-time closer in May

· Did not appear in a game between Aug. 28-Sept. 19 after suffering an irregular heartbeat during his Aug. 27 appearance at Colorado

· Had ablation heart surgery on Oct. 23 performed by Dr. Koonwalee Nademanee at White Memorial Hospital

2011 · Established a then-Major League record by averaging 16.10 strikeouts per nine innings…struck out 96 in 53.2 innings pitched…his 96 Ks were tied for fifth among Major League relievers

· Overall, went 2-1 with a 2.85 ERA and five saves in 51 games…limited opponents to a .159 batting average, which ranked third among Major League pitchers (min. 50.0 IP)

· Made his first Opening Day roster and tied for seventh in the NL Rookie of the Year balloting

· Only one of 21 inherited runners scored off him (95.2 %)

· Batters swung and missed at 38.3 % of his pitches, which was the second-best mark in baseball, behind Craig Kimbrel's 38.6 swing-and-miss pct. (min. 30 games)

· Was hospitalized with an irregular heartbeat after his July 26 outing…was placed on the disabled list on July 29 due to blood thinning medication taken to treat the irregular heartbeat…was activated on Aug. 25

2010 · Saw his first big league action and finished the season 1-0 with a 0.67 ERA (2 ER/27.0 IP) and four saves in 25 games in his first full season as a pitcher…limited hitters to a .130 batting average (12-for-92) with just three extra-base hits (all doubles)

· Made his big league debut on July 24 and tossed a perfect inning…struck out the Mets' Angel Pagan and David Wright for the first two outs of his career

· Despite pitching in just 25 games (27.0 IP), his 41 strikeouts tied for ninth among all rookie relievers

· Earned his first save on July 25 vs. NYM, which was his second Major League game

· Picked up his first Major League victory on Sept. 11 at Houston, firing a perfect eighth inning

· Named to Baseball America's minor league second team as a relief pitcher and combined to go 5-1 with eight saves and a 1.60 ERA in 33 games with Single-A Inland Empire and Double-A Chattanooga…selected as a Double-A Southern League All-Star and earned the save in the All-Star Game

2009 · Opened the season as a catcher and combined to hit .198 with a home run and 13 RBI in 34 games with Inland Empire and Triple-A Albuquerque

· Activated by Inland Empire on July 29 and converted to a pitcher, allowing six runs in 11.2 innings (4.63 ERA) in 12 relief appearances

· Following the season, pitched for the Peoria Javelinas of the Arizona Fall League

· Played for Team Netherlands as a catcher in the 2009 World Baseball Classic, going 1-for-13 with a walk in five games

2008 · Spent the entire campaign with Single-A Great Lakes and selected as a midseason Midwest League All-Star, ranking fourth on the club with nine homers and fifth on the team with 27 RBI in 79 games

Career Summary

- The 2014 National League Most Valuable Player, three-time Cy Young Award winner (2011, 2013-14) and seven-time All-Star (2011-17) enters his 12th big league season with a 153-69 record and a 2.39 ERA in 318 career games (316 starts)
- Since the start of the live ball era in 1920, has the lowest all-time career ERA (2.39) and WHIP (1.00) among starting pitchers with more than 1,500.0 innings pitched…his .207 opponents' average ranks third among pitchers with that qualifier, behind only Nolan Ryan (.204) and Sandy Koufax (.205)
- Became the ninth all-time pitcher to win three or more Cy Youngs after the 2014 season since the award was instituted in 1956…became the 14th NL pitcher to win the award via a unanimous vote in 2014…by winning the award in 2013-14, he became the ninth pitcher in either league to win the award in consecutive seasons…finished second in the 2012 and 2017 Cy Young voting, third in 2015 and fifth in 2016
- In 2014, became the 11th Dodger player to win the MVP award and the 11th pitcher to win both the MVP and Cy Young Award in the same season
- Won the MLB ERA title in four consecutive seasons from 2011-14, becoming the first-ever pitcher to do so…also led the Majors with a career-high 21 wins in both 2011 and 2014
- Topped the Majors with 301 strikeouts in 2015 and led the NL in Ks in 2011 and 2013…has collected 200-plus strikeouts in seven of his 11 big league seasons, which is the most in franchise history and the fourth most in National League history
- Leads the Majors in ERA, opponents' average, WHIP (1.00), shutouts (15) and winning percentage (.689) since making his debut in 2008, while also ranking among the MLB leaders in strikeouts (2,275, 3rd), wins (153, 5th) and complete games (25, 3rd)
- Obtained his 2,000th career strikeout in the second inning against Milwaukee on June 2, 2017, reaching the milestone in 1,837.2 innings, the fourth fastest all-time behind only Pedro Martinez (1715.1 IP), Randy Johnson (1734.0 IP) and Max Scherzer (1784.0)
- Ranks among the all-time Los Angeles leaders in strikeouts (3rd), wins (4th), starts (5th) and innings pitched (7th)
- Became the third different Dodger pitcher to win the pitching Triple Crown in 2011 (Dazzy Vance – 1924, Sandy Koufax – 1963, '65, '66), leading the Majors with a 2.28 ERA, tying the NL lead with 21 wins and ranking first in the league with 248 strikeouts
- Won a Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 2011 and has made just nine errors in his Major League career (.976 fielding percentage)…leads active players with 62 career pickoffs
- Strung together 41.0 consecutive scoreless innings from June 13-July 10, 2014 which tied with Luis Tiant (1968) for the sixth longest streak in the expansion era
- Made his Major League debut on May 25, 2008, allowing just two runs in 6.0 innings against the Cardinals and fanned the first batter he faced (Skip Schumaker)…earned his first big league win on July 27, 2008 vs. Washington, tossing 6.0 scoreless innings in the Dodgers' 2-0 win
- Honored with Major League Baseball's 2012 Roberto Clemente Award for his charitable endeavors…has been the Dodgers' nominee for the award in 2011, 2012 and 2014
- Was the only two-time winner of the Dodgers' Roy Campanella Award, doing so in 2013-14, Chase Utley became the second two-time winner in 2018

Year-By-Year

2018
- Finished the regular season ranking among NL pitchers (min. 25 starts) in ERA (2.73, 4th), strikeout-to-walk ratio (5.34, 3rd), WHIP (1.04, 4th), opponents' on-base percentage (.264, 4th), opponents' OPS (.630, 8th) and opponents' batting average (.227, 11th)
- Was the Dodgers' Opening Day starter for the eighth consecutive year, tied with Don Drysdale for the most in franchise history, but took the loss after allowing one run in 6.0 innings on March 29 vs. SF
- In 13 second half starts, he went 6-1 with a 2.73 ERA (26 ER/85.2 IP), striking out 77 batters against 12 walks, while posting a 1.00 WHIP and holding batters to a .227/.255/.365 slash line…since the All-Star break he ranked among NL pitchers (min. 75.0 IP) in fewest walks per nine innings (1.26, 2nd), strikeout to walk ratio (6.42, 5th), opponents' OBP (.255, 6th), innings pitched (85.2, 7th), WHIP (1.00, 8th), opponents' OPS (.620, 9th) and ERA (2.73, 10th)
- Held hitters to a .227 average, including a .223 mark against right-handed hitters… limited hitters to a .220 average with runners in scoring position
- Reached 2,000 career innings against the San Diego Padres on July 9, becoming just the 13th Dodger in franchise history to reach that mark and the 11th active pitcher in the league to toss 2000.0 or more innings
- Went 2-3 with a 4.20 ERA (14 ER/30.0 IP) in six postseason games for the Dodgers, while holding batters to a .229/.280/.367 slash line and posting a 1.07 WHIP…earned the win against the Brewers in Game 5 of the NLCS reaching nine career postseason wins, the most in Dodger history
- Had two DL stints: May 6-31 (left biceps tendinitis) and June 1-23 (low back strain)

2017
- Despite being limited to just 27 starts, he finished the season leading the National League in wins (18, T-1st ML), ERA (2.31, 2nd ML), strikeout-to-walk ratio (6.73, 3rd ML) and opponents' OBP (.246, 2nd ML)…also ranked among the best in the senior circuit in winning percentage (.818, 2nd), WHIP (0.95, 2nd), opponents' OPS (.604, 3rd), opponents' SLG (.357, 5th), strikeouts per nine innings (10.39, 5th) and strikeouts (202, 8th)… finished second in the National League Cy Young voting
- Held the opposition to a .212 average, which ranked fourth in the NL, including a .203 mark against right-handed hitters (5th, NL)…limited hitters to a .167 average with runners in scoring position, which ranked second best in the big leagues (min. 100 BFP), trailing just Chicago's Kyle Hendricks (.154)
- Selected to his seventh consecutive All-Star team (2011-17), making him the first Dodger to be named to seven straight All-Star Games since Steve Garvey who made eight consecutive appearances in the Midsummer Classic…did not participate in the All-Star game
- Recorded a 12-game winning streak from May 6-Sept. 1, which was the longest winning streak in the big leagues…during that span he posted a 1.70 ERA (20 ER/106.0 IP) and limited batters to a .185 average, while punching out 131 batters against just 21 walks…won eight consecutive games from June 7-July 18 during that stretch, which matched his career-high (also: June 2-July 10, 2014)
- According to Stats LLC., became just the fourth Dodger pitcher since 1913 to win at least 16 of his first 18 decisions in one season (16-2, 1.95 ERA), joining Freddie Fitzsimmons (16-2, 1940), Preacher Roe (16-2, 1951), and Don Newcombe (17-1, 1955)
- Obtained his 2,000th career strikeout in the second inning against Milwaukee on June 2, reaching the milestone in 1,837.2 innings, the fourth fastest all-time behind only Pedro Martinez (1715.1 IP), Randy Johnson (1734.0 IP) and Max Scherzer (1784.0)
- Was placed on the DL from July 24-Sept. 1 with a lower back strain…prior to his stint on the DL, he went 15-2 with a 2.04 ERA in 21 starts and led the big leagues in wins, ERA and innings pitched (141.1 IP, T-1st)…returned from the DL on Sept. 1 and went 3-2 with a 3.48 ERA (13 ER/33.2 IP) in six starts
- Was named National League Pitcher of the Week ending in July 9

Community Spotlight

Kershaw was honored with the 2012 Roberto Clemente Award, which recognizes a MLB player who best represents the game of baseball through positive contributions on and off the field, including sportsmanship and community involvement, and with the MLB Players Association's 2014 Marvin Miller Man of the Year Award, given to the player whose excellence on and off the field most inspire others to higher levels of achievement. Along with his wife, Ellen, founded their non-profit, Kershaw's Challenge, in 2011, which works to transform at-risk communities and the lives of children by partnering with organizations both locally and abroad to renew hope, one life at a time. The foundation supports local charities in Los Angeles, partnering with The Dream Center, as well as charities in his hometown of Dallas (Mercy Street), Zambia, Africa (Arise Africa) and the Dominican Republic (Cure International). In addition to financial support, Kershaw has made numerous visits to each organization, where he's assisted with community outreach programs, run baseball clinics/camps and donated/distributed essential daily supplies like food and clothing. The Kershaws have hosted an annual charity fundraising event in Los Angeles for the past five years, with Clayton's Texas BBQ & Hoedown in 2012 and Ping Pong 4 Purpose in 2013-18, with proceeds benefitting Kershaw's Challenge and also hosted a chartiy event in Dallas the past four years, Kershaw's Challenge Live benefit concert. - Appeared in the outfield majority of the season, playing 49 games (47 starts) in center field and 48 games (46 starts) in left field, while also playing 22 games (19 starts) at second base, 14 games (10 starts) at third base and eight games (three starts) at third base…posted a .989 fielding percentage (2 E/800.2 IP) in the outfield and recorded seven outfield assists (T-12th NL)
- His three grand slam homers tied for the second most in the Majors and tied for most in Dodger franchise history, joining Kal Daniels (1990), Mike Piazza (1998), Adrian Beltre (2004) and Matt Kemp (2009)…went 6-for-10 (.600, 5th ML) with the bases loaded
- On July 22 against Atlanta, he went 2-for-2 with a homer and a triple after entering the game in the seventh inning as a defensive replacement and according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became just the second Dodger player since 1900 to hit a triple and a home run in a game that he did not start in, joining Gordon Windhorn, who accomplished the feat against the Phillies on Sept. 12, 1961
- Led the game on Sept. 18 at Philadelphia with his first career inside-the-park home run, which was also the club's first inside-the-park home run since 2011 (Trent Oeltjen) and L.A.'s first leadoff inside-the-park homer since manager Dave Roberts did so against the Cubs on 2003
- Appeared in all 15 postseason games for the Dodgers, hitting .254 (15-for-59) with 12 runs, four doubles, one triple, three homers and seven RBI along with a .889 OPS…named co-MVP for the 2017 NLCS with teammate Justin Turner
- According to Elias, he is just the fourth Dodger player to reach base safely in each of his first seven World Series games, joining Roy Campanella (first nine, 1949-1952), Steve Garvey (seven, 1974-1977) and Steve Yeager (seven, 1974-1977)…reached base safely in all 15 postseason games
- Started the year with Triple-A OKC, where in 10 games he hit .233 (10-for-43) with two doubles, two triples, one homer, and five RBI…recalled on April 19 and spent the rest of the season with Los Angeles

2016
- In 36 combined games with the Mariners and the Dodgers, he hit .213 (13-for-61) with two doubles, two triples, one homer and seven RBI
- Acquired by the Dodgers from Seattle on June 19 in exchange for RHP Zach Lee after playing in just two games with the Mariners, going 1-for-3 with two strikeouts
- Made three stints with the Dodgers, batting .207 (12-for-58) and appeared in 10 games (two starts) at third base, seven games (five starts) at second base and five games (four starts) at shortstop
- Slugged a grand slam home run in the sixth inning off of Silvino Bracho on July 15 at Arizona for his first career big league homer…also recorded single-game career-highs in runs (3), RBI (6) and extra-base hits (3), while tying a career-best in hits (3)
- Split time between the Mariners' Triple-A Tacoma and the Dodgers' Triple-A Oklahoma City, posting a combined .322/.397/.474 slashline with 25 doubles, six triples, three homers, 37 RBI and 17 stolen bases in 78 games…hit a combined .395 (30-for-76) with runners in scoring position

2015
- Appeared in 37 games with Seattle between two separate stints (May 4-June 1 and July 2-30), hitting .170 (16-for-94) with three doubles, a triple and an RBI
- Began the season on the DL with a fractured triquetrum bone in his right wrist
- Appeared in 28 games (25 starts) at shortstop, four games (two starts) at second base and one game at third base
- Spent majority of the season with Triple-A Tacoma, batting .300 with 56 runs, 20 doubles, six triples, four homers, 32 RBI and 16 stolen bases in 86 games…finished the season tying for seventh in on-base percentage (.391) and tied for 12th in triples in the PCL

2014
- Finished the season in the Majors after making his big league debut on July 24, batting .287 with 16 runs, eight doubles, nine RBI and five stolen bases in 47 games with the Mariners
- Recorded a hit in his first 12 starts (.419, 18-for-43), which was the second-longest hit streak for a starter to begin a career in Mariners history
- Had his contract selected on July 24 and made his Major League debut against the Orioles on the same day, making the start at shortstop…collected his first big league hit on that day, with a single in the fifth inning off of Wei-Yin Chen
- Appeared in 75 games with Triple-A Tacoma, posting a .328/.397/.497 slashline with 63 runs, 22 doubles, seven triples, five homers and 37 RBI…tied for sixth in triples in the PCL

Uniform Numbers In Dodger History

Since 1932, hundreds of players and coaches have put on a Dodger uniform, wearing every single number from 1 to 77 as well as 0, 00, 97 and 99. On April 15, from 2007-18 the Dodgers all wore No. 42 to celebrate the 60th-71st anniversaries of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Pitcher Joe Beimel's No. 97 was the highest number ever worn by a player during a regular-season game until Manny Ramirez donned No. 99 in 2008. In 2014, Brian Wilson became the first Dodger to wear 00. Pee Wee Reese's No. 1 was officially retired on July 4, 1984, one of nine numbers that have been retired. Below is a list of the different numbers worn by Dodgers since 1932 and the years in which they were worn.

PEE WEE REESE — IF — 1

Uniform Number Retired July 1, 1984

Harold Pee Wee Reese played 16 seasons at shortstop for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1940-42, 1946-58) and was a member of seven Brooklyn pennant-winning teams, including the World Championship club of 1955. A 10-time National League All-Star, Reese appeared in more games at shortstop (2,014) than any player in franchise history and is also the Dodgers' all-time leader in runs scored (1,338) and walks (1,210). His leadership qualities were recognized by Manager Walter Alston, who appointed "The Little Colonel" as team captain. Reese was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

TOMMY LASORDA — MGR — 2

Uniform Number Retired August 15, 1997

Tommy Lasorda had a tough act to follow when he succeeded future Hall of Famer Walter Alston as Dodger manager with four games left in the 1976 season. But like Alston, Lasorda went on to enjoy a lengthy and highly successful tenure at the helm. Piloting the Dodgers until the 1996 campaign, he racked up 1,599 victories to rank 13th on the all-time Major League managerial list, winning two World Series titles (1981 and 1988), four NL pennants and eight division titles. Prior to joining the big league staff as a coach in 1973, he had a successful eight-year stint as a minor league manager, helping the development of several future Dodger stars. The former Brooklyn Dodger pitcher was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

DUKE SNIDER — OF — 4

Uniform Number Retired JULY 6, 1980

The Duke of Flatbush was among the game's most feared hitters during his 16 seasons with the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1947-62), playing on a pair of World Championship teams (1955 and 1959) and in six World Series overall. The eight-time All-Star center fielder ranks as the franchise's career leader in home runs (389) and runs batted in (1,271) and during the 1950s he topped all Major Leaguers with 326 homers and 1,031 RBI. He slugged four home runs in both the 1952 and 1955 World Series and he holds the Brooklyn Dodger single-season mark of 43 homers, which led the National League in 1956. His 136 RBI in 1955 topped the NL. Snider was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1980.

JIM GILLIAM — OF/IF — 19

Uniform Number Retired OCTOBER 10, 1978

Junior Gilliam played his entire 14-year Major League career (1953-66) in a Dodger uniform, both in Brooklyn and Los Angeles, contributing to four World Championship clubs (1955, 1959, 1963 and 1965) and seven pennant winners overall. He appeared in 1,956 games to rank fifth on the franchise's all-time games played list, seeing action at second base, third base and in the outfield. In 1953, he was selected as the National League Rookie of the Year. Following his playing career, the two-time All-Star served as a Dodger coach until his untimely death at the age of 49 prior to the start of the 1978 World Series, at which time his number was retired and the Dodgers wore a commemorative patch on their sleeve in his honor.

DON SUTTON — RHP — 20

Uniform Number Retired August 14, 1998

The durable right-hander spent 16 of his 23 Major League seasons with the Dodgers and more than made his mark in team history, ranking as the franchise's all-time leader in wins (233), games pitched (550), innings pitched (3,816.1), strikeouts (2,696) and shutouts (52). A four-time All-Star, he pitched in three World Series (1974, 1977 and 1978) with the Dodgers, led the National League in shutouts (9) in 1972, was the NL ERA leader (2.21) in 1980 and a 21-game winner in 1976. He made his big league debut with the Dodgers in 1966 and stayed with the team through 1980, before leaving and rejoining the club in 1988. Sutton finished his career with 324 wins and 3,574 strikeouts and was enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998.

WALTER ALSTON — MGR — 24

Uniform Number Retired JUNE 5, 1977

Walter Emmons Alston was a virtual unknown when he took over the helm of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1954, but he became well-known in a hurry. The long-time minor league skipper guided his first Dodger team to 92 wins and followed that by piloting the 1955 Dodgers to 98 victories and their first World Championship in franchise history. He went on to lead the Dodgers to six more National League pennants and three more World Series titles (1959, 1963 and 1965) in a 23-year career in which he tallied 2,040 victories to place sixth on the all-time managerial wins list. His 3,658 total games managed rank eighth all time. Alston, who played in one Major League game, that with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1983.

Uniform Number Retired JUNE 4, 1972

Among the most dominating pitchers in the game's history, the left-hander won 165 games and compiled 2,396 strikeouts in 2,324.1 innings with 40 shutouts in his 12-year Dodger career (1955-66). A three-time Cy Young Award winner and the National League MVP in 1963, Koufax was also World Series MVP in both 1963 and 1965, when he hurled a pair of shutouts. He led the NL in ERA five straight seasons from 1962-66, was the strikeouts leader four times and was tops in wins on three occasions with totals of 27, 26 and 25. In addition, Koufax pitched an NL-record four no-hitters, including a perfect game in 1965, and set the National League single-season mark with 382 strikeouts in 1965. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1972.

ROY CAMPANELLA

C 39

Uniform Number Retired JUNE 4, 1972

In 10 seasons with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1948-57), Campy was a force both at the plate and behind the plate. The catcher played on five pennant-winning clubs, including the World Champions of 1955. That season, the eight-time All-Star became a three-time National League Most Valuable Player award winner after collecting 32 home runs and 107 RBI. He also garnered MVP honors in 1951 and 1953, when he led the league with a Brooklyn-record 142 RBI to go with a career-high 41 home runs. Campanella, whose career was cut short due to a tragic automobile accident that left him paralyzed, was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1969.

JACKIE ROBINSON — OF/IF — 42

Uniform Number Retired JUNE 4, 1972

Jack Roosevelt Robinson made a historic entrance into Major League Baseball in 1947 as the first African-American player in the history of the game. His outstanding debut season netted him the inaugural Rookie of the Year award, which now bares his name, and spring-boarded him to a stellar 10-season career in which he was part of six Brooklyn Dodger pennant-winners, among them the World Championship club of 1955. In 1949, the six-time all-star won the National League batting title (.342) en route to earning MVP honors. Robinson, a first baseman as a rookie, starred as a second baseman for the next five seasons, before moving on to play third base and the outfield. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962.

International Relations

Throughout their history, in both Brooklyn and Los Angeles, the Dodgers have played a major role in the development of international baseball and have been at the forefront of forging relationships with countries around the world:

Australia

- The Dodgers played in the historic Opening Series in Sydney in March of 2014 against the Diamondbacks in MLB's first regular season games in Australia. The Dodgers, who also played an exhibition game against Team Australia, swept the two-game series, which was held at the historic Sydney Cricket Ground. The series marked the Dodgers' first regular-season games outside of North America.
- In 1986, shortstop Craig Shipley became the first native-born Australian to play in the Majors

Canada

- The Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers had a minor league affiliate in Montreal, Canada from 1939-60. Jackie Robinson made his professional baseball debut and won the International League batting title with the Triple-A Montreal Royals in 1946.

Jackie Robinson as a Montreal Royal in 1946.

China

- In the spring of 2008, a split-squad of Dodgers traveled to Beijing, China to play against the San Diego Padres at Beijing's Wukesong Stadium in an exhibition and the first-ever Major League games played in that country.
- In 1986, Peter O'Malley paid for construction of a baseball stadium in Tianjin. Named Dodger Stadium, it still exists and is home to the Tianjin Lions of the Chinese Professional Baseball League founded in 2002.

Cuba

- The Dodgers held Spring Training in Havana from 1941-42 and again in 1947.
- Clayton Kershaw and Yasiel Puig joined MLB and the Players' Association on a historic goodwill tour to Cuba in December 2015.

Dominican Republic

- The Los Angeles Dodgers' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic, Campo Las Palmas, underwent a major renovation and re-dedication in 2017 as it celebrated its 30th year in Dodger player development, having officially opened on March 27, 1987. It was the first-of-its kind facility and has since been replicated by numerous teams throughout baseball. Campo Las Palmas is located in the town of Guerra, just east of the Dominican Republic's capital city of Santo Domingo (more information on Campo Las Palmas can be found in the Dodger Stadium section)...the Dodgers currently have four Dominican-born players on their 40-man roster
- Fernando Valenzuela (2011) and Nomar Garciaparra (2015) have been inducted into the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame at Casa de Campo in La Romana, joining Tommy Lasorda who is a founding member and Goodwill Ambassador of the organization. Lasorda has a statue at the Paseo de los Inmortales, dedicated in 2012, and The Hall of Fame annually bestows an award in his name for a non-Latino who makes significant contributions to Latino baseball. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley is a past recipient
- The Dodgers' history in the Dominican Republic began in 1948 when they held Spring Training in Ciudad Trujillo.

Japan

- The Dodgers have held three postseason tours of Japan by Brooklyn and Los Angeles teams following the 1956, 1966 and 1993 seasons. The Tokyo Giants visited Vero Beach during Spring Training five times (1961, 1967, 1971, 1975 and 1980).
- In 1966, the Dodgers received a two-ton, 10-foot tall, stone lantern gift from Japanese Hall of Famer Sotaro Suzuki as a token of friendship between the Dodgers and Japan and to commemorate the opening of Dodger Stadium in 1962.
- After the 1993 season, the Dodgers played five exhibition games in Asia as part of the Friendship Series tour, three in Taipei, Taiwan and two in the Fukuoka Dome in Fukuoka, Japan.
- In 1995, Hideo Nomo became only the second Japanese born player to appear in the Major Leagues. The Nomo signing and his success spawned Nomo-mania and opened the door for Japanese players in the United States.

Korea

- On Sept. 9, 1990, the Dodgers became the first Major League team to have a game broadcast in the Korean language in the United States.
- In 1994, pitcher Chan Ho Park became the first Korean to play in the Major Leagues.

Mexico

- Pitcher Fernando Valenzuela made his Major League debut in 1980. The native of Sonora, Mexico became an international sensation in 1981 and helped the Dodgers win the World Series.
- The Dodgers took a trip to Monterrey, Mexico during Spring Training in 1991 for a two-game exhibition against Industriales de Monterrey and the Milwaukee Brewers... in 2018, the club played three regular season games against the San Diego Padres in Monterrey from May 4-6 and tossed their very first no-hitter on international soil May 4... The Dodgers also played exhibition games in Mexico City prior to the 1964 season against the Red Devils and in 2003 against the New York Mets.

Kenley Jansen and the Dodgers exchange hats with CPBL All-Stars during the club's pre-season trip to Taiwan in 2010.

Taiwan

- Following the 1993 season, the Dodgers were the first Major League Baseball team to play in Taiwan when they competed against the Chinese Professional League (CPBL) All-Stars for three games as part of the Dodgers' Friendship Baseball Series. The Dodgers also took part in a three-game friendship series against CPBL All-Stars a 2010 Spring Training trip to Taiwan.
- Hong-Chih Kuo in 2000 became the first Taiwanese high school player to sign a professional baseball contract when he signed with the Dodgers.

World Baseball Classic

- In 2017, the Dodgers hosted the semi-finals and championship game of the World Baseball Classsic, with the United States claiming their first WBC title in front of a sold-out Dodger Stadium crowd...in 2009, Dodger Stadium also hosted the semi-finals and final (won by Japan).
- Numerous Dodger players have appeared in the tournament, while Tommy Lasorda served as the event's Global Ambassador in both 2006 and 2009.

Miscellaneous

- Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 exhibition baseball tournament at the Olympic Games in Los Angeles.
- On May 19, 1993, Dodger Stadium hosted the first baseball game to be broadcast in four languages – Chinese, English, Korean and Spanish.

DODGER STADIUM

On April 11, 2018, Major League Baseball announced that Dodger Stadium will host the 2020 All-Star Game in a ceremony attended by past and present Dodger All-Stars, Stan Kasten and MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred. Los Angeles last hosted an All-Star Game in 1980 (program pictured above).

Dodger Stadium

Home of MLB's 2020 All-Star Game, Dodger Stadium's rich history began with club president Walter O'Malley's foresight over six decades ago. In 1957, he lobbied for a new stadium to be built for his Brooklyn club, but when a deal could not be reached, the Dodgers made the unprecedented move to California. In September of that year, the city of Los Angeles agreed to give 300 acres of land to the Dodgers in exchange for the deed to Wrigley Field in Los Angeles and their commitment to construct a 50,000-seat stadium. While Dodger Stadium was being built, the Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum through 1961, before the true Opening Day — April 10, 1962 — when the Dodgers finally played in their new home before 52,564 fans.

Since opening its gates, Dodger Stadium (capacity: 56,000) has hosted 10 World Series and the Dodgers have won four World Championships (1963, 1965, 1981 and 1988), 10 NL pennants (1963, 1965, 1966, 1974, 1977, 1978, 1981, 1988, 2017, 2018), 17 division crowns (1974, 1977-78, 1981, 1983, 1985, 1988, 1995, 2004, 2008-09, 2013-18) and two NL Wild Card berths (1996, 2006). The stadium has hosted 4,554 regular-season Dodger games, with the club posting a 2,619-1,935 record (.575), and 86 postseason games (51-35, .593).

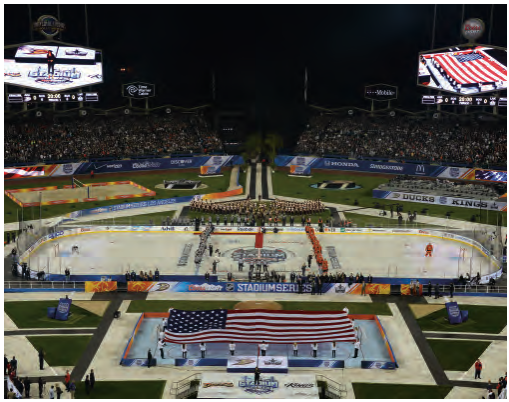
History

- The first game in Dodger Stadium history was held on April 10, 1962. Left-hander Johnny Podres made the start against the Cincinnati Reds. Kay O'Malley, wife of Dodger President Walter O'Malley, threw out the ceremonial first pitch to catcher John Roseboro.
- Hall of Famer Willie Stargell is the only player to twice hit a ball out of Dodger Stadium (Aug. 5, 1969 and May 8, 1973). Mike Piazza is the only Dodger to clear the roof (Sept. 21, 1997).
- Of the six Dodger World Series championships, the only title clinched on their home field was 1963 when Los Angeles swept the Yankees, capped by a 2-1 victory in Game 4.
- The only All-Star Game in Dodger Stadium history was the 1980 Mid-Summer Classic, won by the NL, 4-2. It was announced last year, that Dodger Stadium will also host the 2020 All-Game Game.
- The only perfect game in Dodger history was pitched by Sandy Koufax at Dodger Stadium in a 1-0 victory against the Chicago Cubs on Sept. 9, 1965.

International

- Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 Olympic Baseball tournament, the opening ceremonies of the 1991 United States Olympic Festival and the finals of both the 2009 and 2017 World Baseball Classics.
- In 1966, the Dodgers received a 10-foot-tall stone lantern gift from Japanese Hall of Famer Sotaro Suzuki as a token of friendship between the Dodgers and Japan. The Dodgers rededicated the stone lantern in 2003 and maintain it and the surrounding Japanese garden, located in the hills above parking lot 6.

Sandy Koufax celebrates recording the final out of the 1963 World Series.



Dodger Stadium played host to the NHL's Stadium Series on January 25, 2014, as the Anaheim Ducks faced the Los Angeles Kings in a regular season game.

Unique Events

- Pope John Paul II celebrated a Mass at Dodger Stadium on Sept. 16, 1987. The event drew a stadium-record crowd of 63,000.
- Entertainers to perform at Dodger Stadium include: AC/DC, Beyoncé, Billy Joel, Guns N' Roses, The Rolling Stones, The Beatles, KISS, Madonna, The Bee Gees, Elton John, Simon and Garfunkel, John Legend, Luke Bryan, Michael Jackson, David Bowie, Genesis, Eric Clapton, U2, the Dave Matthews Band, Bruce Springsteen, Paul McCartney and The Three Tenors.
- The Harlem Globetrotters played an exhibition game at Dodger Stadium on Feb. 4, 1964. The basketball court was placed on the infield.
- In recent years, Dodger Stadium has played host to a rugby match (2015), a soccer game (2013) and the National Hockey League's first regular-season outdoor game in California on Jan. 25, 2014 between the Los Angeles Kings and Anaheim Ducks (pictured left).

Original Construction

- Elevations at "Chavez Ravine" ranged from 400 feet to 700 feet above sea level. More than eight million cubic yards of earth was moved to reshape the area.
- Dodger Stadium was designed by Emil Praeger and was the first privately financed stadium since Yankee Stadium, built by a brewery in 1923.
- The Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Coliseum from 1958-61 and groundbreaking ceremonies for the original Dodger Stadium construction were held on Sept. 17, 1959.
- There were more than 25,000 separate pieces of precast concrete used to build the original Dodger Stadium.
- The original dugout level seats at Dodger Stadium were inspired by a similar layout of dugout seats at Korakuen Stadium, where the Dodgers played during their 1956 Japan goodwill tour. Club seats have since been replaced by the Dugout Club Seats.
- Dodger Stadium was designed so that each of the nine levels of the park has entries at grade as the hillside rises around the structure. The engineers used the terrain of the site to allow access directly from each level without requiring fans to use stairs or an elevator.

A birds-eye view of the Dodger Stadium construction and terraced parking at Chavez Ravine.

- The original color scheme of Dodger Stadium, which is evident in the seats today, is a result of the study of popular colors in the 1960's, reflective of the California spirit.
- The distinctive inverted precast panels of the Top Deck and the zig-zag roof of the pavilions are unique architectural features.

Recent improvements

- Since 2013, Dodger Stadium has undergone a series of fan-friendly, structural and behind-the scenes improvements including the creation of two new entrance plazas on the field level, tiered seating and bar-areas overlooking both bullpens, new HD video screens and sound system, wider concourses and renovated restrooms, enhanced concessions, kids play areas, displays to honor the club's rich history, upgrades to the stadium's infrastructure, new home and visiting clubhouses and new batting cages in home/visitor clubhouses.

Los Angeles Attendance Highlights

Record At The Turnstile: In 2018, the Dodgers led Major League Baseball in attendance for the sixth consecutive season and set a franchise record with a total attendance of 3,857,500 for their 82 home dates (47,042 average). It marked the sixth highest single-season attendance in National League history. The Dodgers' previous high mark was set in 2007 (3,857,036). Los Angeles also led MLB in combined home/road attendance, drawing 6,538,203.

Mlb Leaders: Since moving to Los Angeles in 1958, the Dodgers have led the National League in attendance 33 times, including posting the highest attendance in the Majors in 29 of those 33 years (see previous page for individual seasons).

Sellouts: The Dodgers established a club record with 37 sellouts in 1983.

Largest Single-Game Crowd: The Dodgers drew 57,097 fans on April 13, 2009 for an 11-1 Opening Day victory over the Giants, the largest regular season crowd in Dodger Stadium history and one of three times that the club has drawn more than 56,000 at Chavez Ravine (also: March 31, 2011 vs. SF, Aug. 21, 2012 vs. SF).

Largest Single-Game Postseason Crowd: During the postseason, the largest Dodger Stadium crowd is 56,800 - done three times during the 2008 NLCS vs. Philadelphia - Oct. 12, 13, 15.

Over Three Million: The Dodgers hold the Major League record for drawing more than three million fans on 32 occasions, while also topping the big leagues in number of times topping 2.5 million (45). Los Angeles has surpassed 2 million fans for an MLB record 46 consecutive seasons.

Turnstiles: The Dodgers established a then-Major League record when they drew 3,608,881 fans in 1982. The NL implemented a new attendance counting system in 1993, and the Rockies recorded the largest single-season total in Major League history with 4,483,350 fans in their first Major League season. Through the 1992 season, attendance figures in the NL were counted by the number of fans in attendance and the AL counted total tickets sold. Both leagues - currently count total tickets sold.

For The Record Book: On May 7, 1959, the Dodgers and Yankees played before an exhibition crowd of 93,103 at the Los Angeles Coliseum in honor of Roy Campanella, the highest single-game attendance mark for a Major League game.

World's Greatest: The Dodgers in 2005 were honored by the Guinness Book of World Records as having the "Highest Cumulative Attendance for a Baseball Franchise" dating back to 1901.

Campo Las Palmas

The Dodgers were the first MLB club to establish a baseball academy in the Dominican Republic when they first opened the doors of Campo Las Palmas in 1987. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley and former Dodger Scout and Vice President Ralph Avila arranged for the Dodgers to purchase land in San Antonio de Guerra on which Campo Las Palmas was constructed. The Dodgers, under ownership by Mark Walter and Guggenheim Baseball Management, expanded the campus with the purchase of a neighboring parcel and the total complex is now 70 acres.

Campo Las Palmas celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2017 with extensive improvements and an expansion of the state-of-the-art facility. In 1987, the original facility consisted of four structures, which has now grown to 10 buildings of nearly 100,000 total square feet following the 2017 expansion. The newly renovated Campo Las Palmas houses 96 players, 19 coaches and support staff, while training facilities include three and one-half fields, a covered batting cage large enough to accommodate infield practice, a mile running track, conditioning and weight room and training areas within the clubhouse.

Designed to expand the campus qualities of the original complex and encourage continuing education during time in camp, new buildings at Campo Las Palmas feature four classrooms, a quiet room and a social area for players. Additional updates include the Jackie Robinson Hall which functions as a movie house that uses English-language films as part of language learning and is a place where players can spend time with their families when they visit Campo Las Palmas. A community field for little league play is near the entrance, and fruit trees and a vegetable garden near the new kitchen mark the team's commitment to nutrition.

Camelback Ranch-Glendale

Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G) is in its 11th season (opened in 2009) as the Spring Training home of the Dodgers and White Sox this year. CR-G is one of the largest stadiums in the Cactus League and features unique grounds that include picturesque walking trails, a five-acre lake and an orange grove – a nod to the Dodgers' previous spring home in Vero Beach, FL, where they trained for 61 years. The CR-G campus has become home for all Dodger minor league operations throughout the year, including the franchise's teams in the Rookie-level Arizona League, Fall Instructional League and Arizona Fall League.

The award-winning stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for 3,000-plus fans. An orange grove – a touch of Dodgertown, Southern California and Arizona – is located beyond the left-field wall of replica Dodger Stadium.

The Dodgers set a CR-G total attendance record in 2017, with 165,911 in 17 home dates. The club's record for average attendance was set in 2016, when the club hosted 155,841 fans in 15 home dates (average of 10,389).

Dodgertown In Vero Beach

Dodgertown in Vero Beach was the Spring Training home of the Dodgers for 61 years from 1948-2008 and home to some of the most memorable players and personalities of both Brooklyn and Los Angeles lore. The personalized street signs within the complex honored such Hall of Famers as Jackie Robinson, Sandy Koufax, Roy Campanella, Duke Snider, Pee Wee Reese, Don Drysdale, Tommy Lasorda, Walter Alston, Don Sutton, Vin Scully and Jaime Jarrín.

The Dodgers first set up camp at the invitation of a local businessman, Bud Holman, after the city needed a tenant to occupy a former World War II Naval Air Station. The club brought its minor league operations to Vero Beach in 1948, and in 1952 Dodger President Walter O'Malley and New York-based architect Emil Praeger decided to build an intimate-style stadium with unobstructed views. "Holman Stadium," named by O'Malley after Bud Holman, was officially dedicated on March 11, 1953. The camp became the most unique baseball training facility in the country, a destination for international baseball visitors. The complex also grew into six practice fields, four indoor batting and pitching tunnels, a pool, tennis court and more.

On March 17, 2008, the final Spring Training contest took place at Holman Stadium and at its conclusion, the Dodgers formed a "bat tunnel" for Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda as he walked off the field for the final time in Vero Beach. In November 2014, Historic Dodgertown - Vero Beach was designated as a "Florida Heritage Landmark" and a Historical Marker was unveiled on the property.

COMMUNITY & LOS ANGELES DODGERS FOUNDATION

During the 2019 Dodgers Love LA Community Tour, Dodger players visited with families of victims, survivors and first responders from the Borderline tragedy in Thousand Oaks. After an emotional remembrance luncheon, the players and community connected over a love of country music and line-dancing.

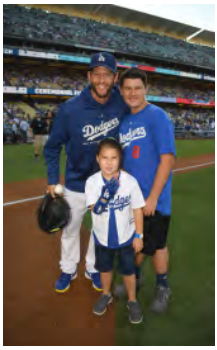
PLAY

- Thousands of underserved local youth have attended the annual Children's Holiday Party for a day of fun and games that includes snow and the distribution of books, toys, and bicycles
- During the 2018 Dodgers Love LA Community Tour the team built the first Dodgers playground in Alhambra

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

On and off the field, the Dodgers are committed to serving the community of Los Angeles. With various events occurring throughout the year and across the Southland, the Dodgers' community outreach focuses on inspiring youth and adults throughout the region to PLAY, LIVE, LEARN and SERVE.

Through civic and corporate partnerships, events and community service, the Dodgers fulfill a multitude of community needs and wishes, bringing joy and respite to people of all ages, abilities, backgrounds and genders.



LIVE

- During the 2018 season, the team granted over 300 unforgettable Dodger experiences and wishes to fans facing unique milestones or serious health conditions through the Dodger Blue Wishes Program
- Throughout the season, the Dodgers visited hundreds of fans in local hospitals

LEARN

- 1.2 million minutes have been read by over 5,000 students from more than 900 schools through the LA Reads program
- Over 5,000 LAUSD students from 11 schools participated in the Step Up to the Plate Attendance Program last season
- 9,000 students participated in the Shred Hate initiative during the 2018 season when the Dodgers teamed up with Major League Baseball, ESPN and No Bully to raise awareness about the bullying epidemic and reduce the incidents of bullying in schools

SERVE

- Active military personnel and veterans were honored during each 2018 home game for the Military Hero of the Game recognition
- The team has hosted thousands of military service members and their families at the annual Veteran's Day Batting Practice
- Thousands of servicemen and women have been welcomed to the stadium through the annual Military Appreciation Night and L.A. Fleet Week
- Over 700 first responders and emergency personnel have participated in the annual Firefighter Appreciation batting practice that includes hitting at home plate, fielding balls in the outfield, lunch and player meet and greets

IN THE COMMUNITY

· Throughout the past 14 seasons, the team has distributed over 15,000 Thanksgiving turkeys and dinners to low-income families at the annual Turkey Giveaway

· Since its inception in 2017, over 1.5 million people have taken advantage of the Dodger Stadium Express; a collaboration with Metro to provide free public transportation to Dodger Stadium

· In 2018, the team hosted multiple events throughout Los Angeles to address causes unique to the local community including a tree planting event, a back to school giveaway and a field renovation at a neighboring middle school

· Supported those affected by the California wildfires and pledged $100,000 to the American Red Cross in support of relief efforts from the Woolsey and Hill wildfires near Los Angeles

· Joined the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation to donate $25,000 to the Ventura County Community Foundation to benefit those affected by the Borderline Shooting Tragedy

· Donated Dodger items and stadium experiences to more than 1,100 community organizations and individuals

Sports + Recreation | Education + Literacy | Health + Wellness

Founded in 1995, the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation (LADF) is the official team charity of the Los Angeles Dodgers. An award-winning leader in sports-based youth development, LADF harnesses the power of the Dodger brand, and a passionate fan base, to significantly impact underserved youth in some of the most challenged neighborhoods of Los Angeles. With a focus on Sports + Recreation, Education + Literacy, and Health + Wellness, LADF administers direct programs serving youth and communities at large and provides grants to local nonprofit organizations. With a bigger than baseball mentality, LADF is focused on finding innovative ways to create opportunities for children through programs that engage with kids in sports, helps kids stay active and promote academic success. With the support of partners, stakeholders and fans, LADF produces incredible results on fields, in classrooms and at recreation centers, creating Major League Communities.

The Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation envisions a city where every young Angeleno, in every neighborhood can thrive.

YOUTH PROGRAMS

▼ Dodgers Dreamfields

Through the Dodgers Dreamfields program, LADF builds and refurbishes baseball and softball fields in underserved communities to provide a safe place for youth to conduct positive recreational activity in their own neighborhoods. With the completion of Dodgers Dreamfield No. 50 in 2018, LADF announced its plan to extend the initial commitment of 50 fields with an additional $10 million to build 75 fields by the 75th anniversary of the Dodgers move to Los Angeles. LADF will build and refurbish 25 more fields by 2033.

▼ LA Reads

LA Reads is a joint-literacy campaign between LADF and the Dodgers which includes the "Dodgers Reading Champions" literacy challenge. LA Reads and Dodgers Reading Champions are designed to motivate youth to read and help them build a lifelong love of reading. LADF hosts reading events throughout the community at local schools, libraries, non-profit partners and in-stadium throughout the school year as a part of the LA Reads campaign.

▲ Dodgers RBI

(Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities)

Dodgers RBI is a baseball and softball youth-development program that aims to increase participation in the sport and use sports participation as an engagement tool to increase access to education, literacy, health, wellness and recreational resources in underserved communities serving 10,500 children ages 5-18 across 89 locations. Dodgers RBI is bigger than baseball, focusing on youth character development as it engages communities and families in programming.

GRANTMAKING

In 2018, LADF impacted 2,300,000 kids with direct programs and grants to local organizations that totaled more than $1.6 million to 70 non-profit organizations. These awards are part of LADF's annual grants program, which disseminates funds three times a year to organizations that fall within its three pillars — Education + Literacy, Health + Wellness and Sports + Recreation.

Jaime Jarrín

Hall of Fame Broadcaster

Jaime Jarrín, "the Spanish voice of the Dodgers" and one of the most recognizable voices in all of sports broadcasting, has been calling Dodger games since 1959, entering his 61st season with the club in 2019. Last season, the Hall of Famer became just the 12th Dodger to be added to the club's Ring of Honor, joining other franchise icons in having his name permanently affixed to Dodger Stadium.

Jarrín has called three perfect games (Sandy Koufax in 1965, Tom Browning in 1988 and Dennis Martinez in 1991) and 22 no-hitters, 29 World Series and 30 All-Star games during his decorated career. In 1998, he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY as the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award and became only the second Spanish-language announcer to achieve that honor, joining Buck Canel. In the 2005 book "Voices of Summer," Jarrín was named as baseball's all-time best Spanish-language broadcaster.

The Quito, Ecuador native began working for HCJB in his home country when he was 16 years old and went on to become the announcer for the National Congress of Ecuador, while studying philosophy, letters, journalism and broadcasting at Central University of Ecuador in Quito. Following his graduation, Jarrín hoped to continue his broadcasting career in the United States, arriving on June 24, 1955, and at the time, he had never seen a baseball game. His first experience with baseball was watching the Dodgers on a televised broadcast of the 1955 World Series against the Yankees, and he soon began attending minor league games in Los Angeles at Gilmore Field and Wrigley Field to learn the game. Jarrín was hired as an announcer at KWKW and soon after, the Dodgers moved to Los Angeles. Jarrín was given one year to prepare to become a baseball broadcaster by William Beaton, the station manager at KWKW.

During his first six years with the Dodgers, Jarrín and his partner would recreate games in the studio while listening to the English radio broadcast. Starting in 1965, Jarrín took the Dodgers' Spanish-language radio broadcast on the road, making every stop with the Dodgers, and rose to become the club's No. 1 Spanish-language broadcaster in 1973. From 1962-84, Jarrín called nearly 4,000 games - spanning 22 seasons – without missing a contest, before the streak was broken in 1984, when he took charge of all the Spanish-language radio coverage and production for the Los Angeles Olympic Games. On August 23, 2009, Jarrín once again made history and served as the play-by-play announcer in the first-ever regular season, dedicated, Spanish-language telecast of a Dodger game.

Jarrín also worked on international news broadcasts including the funeral of President John F. Kennedy, Pope John Paul II's visit to the U.S. and several meetings between foreign leaders and Presidents Richard Nixon and Lyndon B. Johnson. He has called more than 30 world championship boxing title bouts for radio and TV stations in Latin America including the Thrilla in Manila between Muhammad Ali and Joe Frazier.

Jarrin received a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame - dedicated in September 1998 – and is a member of both the California Broadcasters' Association Halls of Fame and the Southern California Sports Broadcasters' Association, which awarded him the organization's Vin Scully Lifetime Achievement Award in 2019. His other major honors include La Gran Cruz al Merito en El Grado de Comendador received in Ecuador in January 1992, being honored by the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) Foundation with an AFTRA Media and Entertainment Excellence Award in 2011 and earning Hall of Fame recognition by the Associated Press Television-Radio Association (APTRA) in 2011.

Jarrín resides in San Marino and has two sons, Mauricio and Jorge, who calls Dodger games on Spanish radio alongside his father. The 2019 season will mark the fourth season of the father-son combination of Jorge and Jaime Jarrín calling games together, with the duo forming the only father-son broadcasting team in MLB Spanish-language radio.

Joe Davis

Broadcaster

Joe Davis enters his fourth year as a member of the Dodger broadcast team on SportsNet LA. Davis, 31, has been calling play-by-play on Fox Sports' national coverage of college football, Major League Baseball and college basketball since 2014 and continues to do so while in his role with the Dodgers.

Davis attended Beloit (Wis.) College, where he was a four-year letter winner and two-time captain of the school's football team, as well as earning a B.A. degree in communications with a minor in journalism. During the football off-seasons, Davis assumed play-by-play duties for the school's athletic department, announcing baseball and men's and women's basketball games on local radio and television and served as the voice of Buccaneer spring sports for his final three years on campus before graduating in 2010.

Prior to his senior year of college, Davis secured a summer job with the Schaumburg Flyers baseball team of the independent Northern League, serving as the team's play-by-play voice and media relations director. He then moved on to the Montgomery (Ala.) Biscuits, the Double-A affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays, and was named Southern League Broadcaster of the Year in 2012. While in Montgomery, Davis also worked for the Baylor Independent Sports Properties Network and Comcast Sports Southeast, where he called play-by-play for college football, basketball and baseball.

In July 2012, Davis made the jump to national television at the age of 24, joining ESPN as an announcer for college baseball, basketball, football, hockey and softball and also appeared in spot duty for Major League Baseball on ESPN radio.

Davis resides in South Pasadena with his wife Libby, daughter Charlotte and son Blake.

Nomar Garciaparra

Broadcaster

Nomar Garciaparra begins his sixth season behind the microphone for the Dodgers, serving as an analyst for SportsNet LA's game broadcast and pre-and-post game telecasts.

A native of Whittier, CA, and a graduate of Bellflower's St. John Bosco High School, Garciaparra played 14 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Red Sox, Cubs, Dodgers and A's, posting a .313 batting average with 229 home runs and 936 RBI. He was the AL Rookie of the Year in 1997; American League batting champion in 1999 and 2000; National League Comeback Player of the Year with the Dodgers in 2006; a six-time MLB All-Star; and won a Silver Slugger Award.

Garciaparra attended Georgia Tech and was a first-round pick of the Red Sox in 1994. He made his MLB debut in 1996 and as a rookie with the Red Sox in 1997, Garciaparra hit 30 home runs and had 98 RBI, setting a MLB record for RBI by a leadoff hitter and most homers by a rookie shortstop.

Garciaparra played three seasons with the Dodgers in 2006-08, earning an All-Star selection at first base and helping the team reach the postseason in 2006. After playing with Oakland in 2009, Garciaparra signed a one-day contract with Boston in 2010 to retire as a member of the Red Sox. In 2014, Garciaparra was inducted into both the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame and the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame in the Dominican Republic.

Following the end of his playing career, Garciaparra worked at ESPN, appearing on Baseball Tonight, MLB game telecasts as well as the network's coverage of the College World Series and the Little League World Series from 2011-13.

Garciaparra was a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic baseball team and his wife, Olympian and World Cup soccer champion Mia Hamm, played on the 1996, 2000 and 2004 women's Olympic soccer team. The couple married in 2003, and have twin girls, Grace and Ava, and a son, Garrett. Both Garciaparra and Hamm are among the investors in Major League Soccer's Los Angeles FC.

Orel Hershiser

Broadcaster

Dodger great and Emmy Award-winning broadcaster Orel Hershiser enters his sixth season as a color commentator and analyst for the Dodgers on SportsNet LA.

Hershiser, who has been recognized by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association for his work as an analyst on both the game broadcast and the Dodgers' pre and post game telecasts, previously was behind the microphone at ESPN from 2006-13 as a color analyst for their Baseball Tonight, Sunday Night Baseball, College World Series and Little League World Series programming.

The three-time All-Star right-hander played 18 seasons in the Majors, including 13 with the Dodgers, who he helped lead to a 1988 World Championship. That year, Hershiser led the National League in wins (23), innings (267), shutouts (8) and complete games (15) en route to a Cy Young Award, and set the all-time mark with a record 59 consecutive scoreless innings (Aug. 30-Sept. 28). He established his place in Dodger lore with a dominant 1988 Postseason, when he earned both NLCS and World Series MVP honors, and became the only player in history to win those honors in addition to the Cy Young Award in the same season. He later received both The Sporting News Pitcher of the Year and Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year awards for his brilliant 1988 season.

Hershiser attended and played baseball at Bowling Green (OH) State University and was drafted in the 17th round by the Dodgers in the 1979 Major League First-Year Player Draft. It was during a game in his rookie year of 1984, that Hershiser was nicknamed "Bulldog" in an effort by Dodgers Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda to get Hershiser to adopt a tougher attitude on the mound.

After finishing his playing career with the Dodgers in 2000 and briefly working for the team, he joined the Rangers as a special assistant to General Manager John Hart in the fall of 2001. He was named the Rangers' pitching coach in 2002 and after the 2005 season he became Executive Director of the Rangers.

He has co-authored or authored two books: Out of the Blue and Between the Lines: Nine Things Baseball Taught Me About Life. Hershiser has two sons, Quinton and Jordan, and two stepchildren, Spencer and Sloane. He and his wife Dana reside in Las Vegas.

Jorge Jarrín
Broadcaster

Jorge Jarrin enters his seventh season as a member of the Dodgers' broadcast team, having called games in Spanish on both radio and television. The 2019 season will mark his fourth year calling games on the radio alongside his father and Hall of Famer Jaime Jarrín, with the duo forming the only father-son broadcasting team in MLB Spanish-language radio, after previously handling play-by-play duties on the Dodgers' Spanish television broadcast for three years. In 2016, Jarrin was recognized by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association as the top Spanish-radio analyst in Los Angeles.

In addition to his broadcasting duties, from 2004-2014, Jarrín served as the Dodgers' Manager of Radio Broadcast Sales and Hispanic Initiatives. In that capacity, he oversaw the Spanish-language radio broadcast, expanded the Dodger Spanish radio network and consulted on the Dodgers' Latino marketing initiatives.

Jarrín served as KABC Talk Radio's "Captain Jorge" for covering traffic from Jet Copter 790 from 1985 to 2011. In 2001 and 2002 Jarrin was teamed with Jose Mota to form DIRECTV's "Major League Baseball Game of the Week" broadcast team to all of Latin America. Also during this period, he filled in as a sports anchor on the KTLA News at 10:00 p.m.

The Associated Press of California honored Jarrin with four awards for his work in reporting the Los Angeles riots following the verdict of the LAPD/Rodney King trial. Additionally, the Associated Press also honored the Dodger broadcaster with an award for his live coverage of a Highway Patrol pursuit and hostage situation. Jarrin also won a coveted Radio and TV News Association Golden Mike Award in 1993 for "Best Coverage of a Late Breaking News Story"

Jorge and his wife Maggie, who met at Dodger Stadium, reside in San Gabriel and have three sons: Andrew, Phillip and Stefan, who was drafted and signed by the Dodgers in 2011.

Rick Monday
Broadcaster

Former Dodger outfielder and two-time Major League All-Star, Rick Monday begins his 26th season as a Dodger broadcaster and 34th season overall with the organization, including eight as a player.

Monday, who joined the Dodgers' broadcast team in 1993, began his broadcasting career as a sports anchor on KTTV in Los Angeles in 1985, while also calling play-by-play and hosting the pregame show for Dodger games on DodgerVision and Z Channel. He was nominated for an Emmy as host of the Dodgers' pregame show on KTTV's "Dodger Central" in 1988 and he earned an Emmy for Live Sports Coverage in 2001. Monday has also called games for the College World Series and the Padres.

A star at Arizona State University, Monday led the Sun Devils to the 1965 College World Series Championship and earned All-American and College Player of the Year honors before the Kansas City Athletics made him the first player ever selected in the Major League First-Year Player Draft in 1965. He was inducted into the ASU Hall of Fame in 1975 and the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2016.

Monday made his Major League debut in 1966 and, after spending six seasons with the Athletics and five seasons with the Cubs, Monday came to the Dodgers as part of a five-player trade in 1977. He played eight seasons in L.A., and propelled the Dodgers to the 1981 World Series with a dramatic, game-winning home run in the winner-take-all Game 5 of the NLCS at Montreal. Overall, Monday compiled a .264 career batting average with 241 home runs and 775 RBI in 19 big-league seasons, while helping the Dodgers win a World Championship in 1981 and three NL pennants (1977, 1978, 1981).

Monday and his wife, Barbaralee, who make regular visits to various veteran's hospitals throughout the year, reside in Vero Beach during the offseason.

Tim Neverett
Broadcaster

Tim Neverett enters his first season as a member of the Dodgers' broadcast team, and will handle play-by-play duties for a select number of games on both television and radio.

Neverett previously served as the radio play-by-play voice of the Boston Red Sox for the past three seasons following a seven-year stint as the radio and television play-by-play announcer for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Before joining the Pirates, Neverett spent four years working for FSN Rocky Mountain, including as a studio host for Colorado Rockies games during the 2008 season. He also served the network as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey, lacrosse, arena football, and track and field. In addition, Neverett hosted talk shows for both the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network and ESPN 560 in Denver, Colorado, where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine. Prior to his time in Denver, Neverett lived in Las Vegas, calling games on radio and TV for the Padres' and Dodgers' Triple-A teams as well as Las Vegas' International Hockey League team and the UNLV baseball and football teams. Neverett, who began his broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate Nashua, also called baseball, softball, basketball, and soccer as well as hockey and skiing during four Olympic Games from 2002-2008.

Neverett played college baseball at Emerson College in Boston, and he and his wife Jessica have three sons: Matthew, Kyle and Drew.

Alanna Rizzo
Broadcaster

Alanna Rizzo enters her sixth season as a member of the Dodger broadcast team, where she serves as SportsNet LA's in-game reporter and also hosts the pre-and post-game shows.

Rizzo is a nationally recognized television sports journalist, reporter and studio host. A six-time regional Emmy Award winner, Rizzo has been covering professional and collegiate sports for more than 15 years. Before coming to Los Angeles, Rizzo was seen on MLB Network, where she appeared across all of the network's studio programming, including "Intentional Talk" and "Quick Pitch", as well as reporting from the Major League Baseball All-Star Game Red Carpet, the MLB Postseason and the World Baseball Classic.

Previously, Rizzo was with ROOT Sports Rocky Mountain in Denver working as a sideline reporter and host for the Colorado Rockies, University of Colorado and University of Denver broadcasts.

Rizzo graduated from the University of Colorado at Boulder where she earned an M.A. in Broadcast Journalism.

Charley Steiner
Broadcaster

Five-time Emmy Award-winner and National Radio Hall of Famer Charley Steiner enters his 15th season as an announcer for the Dodgers, handling play-by-play duties for the club's radio broadcast on AM 570.

Before joining the Dodgers, Steiner broadcast three years for the New York Yankees on WCBS Radio and the YES Network. Prior to his seasons with the Yankees, Steiner spent 14 years at ESPN, where his responsibilities ranged from anchoring SportsCenter to working play-by-play for Major League Baseball and Saturday Primetime Football. He served as SportsCenter's primary boxing reporter/analyst and also contributed to the Emmy and CableACE Award-winning Outside the Lines series. Steiner also called the 2006 and 2013 World Baseball Classics for XM Radio and MLB International, respectively, and broadcast MLB games live from seven different countries.

Steiner graduated from Bradley University, where the School of Sports Communication has been named in his honor. Currently there are 120 majors at the Steiner School, in radio and television broadcasting, journalism, production, direction, ethics, media relations, digital, and sales. Steiner, who was inducted into the Bradley's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, also established the Charles H. Steiner Endowed Scholarship, which is given annually to Bradley broadcasting majors.

He began his professional broadcasting career in 1969 at WIRL Radio in Peoria, Illinois as a newscaster, and made career stops as Davenport, New Haven, Hartford and Cleveland before returning to his native New York, where he was the morning sportscaster on WOR radio, while serving as sports director for the RKO Radio Network. In addition, Steiner called the play-by-play for the USFL New Jersey Generals and, later, for the New York Jets on WABC radio.

Fernando Valenzuela
Broadcaster

Fernando Valenzuela, legendary Dodger and 17-year Major League veteran, enters his fifth season calling games on SportsNet LA in Spanish and his 17th season as a Dodger broadcaster.

In 17 big league seasons, Valenzuela compiled a 173-153 record and a 3.54 ERA with the Dodgers, Angels, Orioles, Phillies, Padres and Cardinals, earning six All-Star selections and tossing a no-hitter on June 29, 1990 against the Cardinals. The Sonora, Mexico native has been inducted to numerous Hall of Fames, including the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum and Caribbean Baseball Hall of Fame.

Valenzuela was a late-season call-up in 1980, but his legend grew as the Dodgers' emergency starter on Opening Day, 1981, when he hurled a 2-0 shutout over the Houston Astros. Valenzuela won his first eight starts that season, including five shutouts and a rookie-record string of 35.0 consecutive scoreless innings, with his improbable success sparking "Fernandomania," as fans flocked to see him pitch – both home and road – and baffle hitters with his signature screwball. Valenzuela, who started the 1981 All-Star Game, became the first player in MLB history to be named Rookie of the Year and win a Cy Young Award in the same season, while leading the Dodgers to a World Championship.

Valenzuela supports the club's community and Latino initiatives, and as a result of his continued community involvement, the Reviving Baseball in Innercities Program (RBI) honored him with a Lifetime Achievement in 2007.

Valenzuela and his wife Linda reside in Los Angeles and have four children, Ricky, Fernando Jr., Linda and Maria Fernanda.

Pepe Yñiguez
Broadcaster

Pepe Yñiguez begins his fifth year calling games in Spanish on SportsNet LA and his 23rd season overall as a Dodger broadcaster after joining the club in 1997.

Yñiguez also previously hosted the Dodgers' pre and post-game shows, "Hablando con los Dodgers," in 1993 and covered select Spanish-language broadcasting assignments for the club in 1997 before joining the team full-time in 1999. Additionally, Yñiguez contributes to the Dodgers' Latino marketing and radio sales efforts in recording promotional ads for Dodger sponsors that air on Univision America KTNQ 1020 AM.

Starting in 1992, Yñiguez broadcasted numerous events for FOX Sports International, including every World Series from 1997-2005. In 1997, he called the All-Star Game at Jacobs Field in Cleveland alongside Tito Fuentes and Dennis Martinez. He has also broadcasted the annual Caribbean Series.

From 1993-95, Yñiguez served as the color commentator for Los Angeles Raiders broadcasts. During past offseasons, he also hosted "Central Deportiva," a weekly sports talk show airing Sunday afternoons, on KWKW in Los Angeles.

Yñiguez resides with his wife Rafaela in La Habra, and has four kids, Edgar, Alenrry, Karissa and Jaquely.
